

THE HATCH ACT

Permitted and Prohibited Activities

For Employees Who May Engage in Partisan Political Management and Campaigns*

- May not use their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election. For example:
 - May not use their official titles or positions while engaged in political activity.
 - May not invite subordinate employees to political events or otherwise suggest to subordinates that they attend political events or undertake any partisan political activity.
- May not solicit, accept or receive a donation or contribution for a partisan political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group. For example:
 - May not host a political fundraiser.
 - May not invite others to a political fundraiser.
 - May not collect contributions or sell tickets to political fundraising functions.*
- May not be candidates for public office in partisan political elections.
- May not knowingly solicit or discourage the participation in any political activity of anyone who has business pending before their employing office.
- May not engage in political activity – i.e., activity directed at the success or failure of a political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group – while the employee is on duty, in any federal room or building, while wearing a uniform or official insignia, or using any federally owned or leased vehicle. For example:
 - May not distribute campaign materials or items.
 - May not display campaign materials or items.
 - May not perform campaign related chores.
 - May not wear or display partisan political buttons, T-shirts, signs, or other items.
 - May not make political contributions to a partisan political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group.
 - May not post a comment to a blog or a social media site that advocates for or against a partisan political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group.
 - May not use any e-mail account or social media to distribute, send, or forward content that advocates for or against a partisan political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group.
- May be candidates for public office in nonpartisan elections.
- May register and vote as they choose.
- May assist in voter registration drives.
- May contribute money to political campaigns, political parties, or partisan political groups.
- May attend political fundraising functions.
- May attend and be active at political rallies and meetings.
- May join and be an active member of political clubs or parties.
- May hold office in political clubs or parties.
- May sign and circulate nominating petitions.
- May campaign for or against referendum questions, constitutional amendments, or municipal ordinances.
- May campaign for or against candidates in partisan elections.
- May make campaign speeches for candidates in partisan elections.
- May distribute campaign literature in partisan elections.
- May volunteer to work on a partisan political campaign.
- May express opinions about candidates and issues. If the expression is political activity, however – i.e., activity directed at the success or failure of a political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group – then the expression is not permitted while the employee is on duty, in any federal room or building, while wearing a uniform or official insignia, or using any federally owned or leased vehicle.
