

Kids.gov is a safe place where kids can learn and have fun!

- Find free resources to help with homework assignments and school projects
- Easy to browse topics by categories such as "science" and "health"
- Learn "How Do I Become President of the United States?" with our Kids.gov poster
- Find exciting and educational online games your kids will love
- Watch Kids.gov's Career Spotlight videos with the Animal Zookeeper and White House Chef
- Provides activities and lesson plans for teachers, librarians and parents
- Sign up for free, weekly content updates from Kids.gov
- Easy to find the best of what the government has to offer kids
- Know your kids are browsing the web in a safe, ad-free environment
- Enjoy our new look and design!

"An easy site to navigate with fun activities my students enjoy!"

*- Victoria
1st Grade Teacher
Arlington, VA*

Some Things You Can Find On Kids.gov

- Play games
- Find help with homework
- Learn about American History
- Discover exciting careers
- Find information about your state
- Learn about our federal government
- Browse online safely
- Volunteer in your community
- Learn about recycling
- And lots more ...