

window will begin August 14, 2000 and end August 18, 2000.

DATES: The new window filing opportunity begins August 14, 2000 and ends August 18, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David Roberts, Video Services Division, Mass Media Bureau at (202) 418-1600.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a summary of a Order released June 23, 2000. It does not include attachments. The complete text of the Order is available for public inspection and copying during normal business hours in the FCC Reference Center (Room CY-A257), 445 12th Street, SW, Washington, DC. It may also be purchased from the Commission's copy contractor, International Transcription Services, Inc. (ITS, Inc.) 1231 20th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20035, (202) 857-3800. It is also available on the Commission's web site at <http://www.fcc.gov>.

The Mass Media Bureau announces a postponement of the July 3 through July 10, 2000 filing window for MDS and ITFS applications for two-way operations. The new filing window will begin August 14, 2000 and end August 18, 2000. However, in order to permit commercial operators to fulfill their business plans which were created in reliance upon the timelines set forth in previous Commission Orders and Public Notice, the Commission will permit MDS operators, starting July 3, 2000, to file applications for two-way authority for Channels 1, 2 and 2a upstream. Such commercial applicants should have consents for downstream transmissions from all affected parties. In addition, we will permit ITFS operators the opportunity to file for developmental authority to begin two-way service.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Section A. Background

On October 20, 1999, the Commission issued its final Rule¹ pursuant to the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. 6501, et seq. The Rule requires certain web site operators to post privacy policies, provide notice, and obtain parental consent prior to collecting, using, or disseminating personal information from children. The Rule contains a "safe harbor" provision enabling industry groups or others to submit self-regulatory guidelines that would implement the protections of the Rule to the commission for approval.²

Pursuant to Section 312.10 of the Rule, ESRB has submitted proposed self-regulatory guidelines to the Commission for approval. The full text of the proposed guidelines is available on the Commission's website, <www.ftc.gov>.

Section B. Questions on the Proposed Guidelines

The Commission is seeking comment on various aspects of the proposed guidelines, and is particularly interested in receiving comment on the questions that follow. These questions are designed to assist the public and should not be construed as a limitation on the issues on which public comment may be submitted. Responses to these questions should cite the numbers and subsection of the questions being answered. For all comments submitted, please provide any relevant data, statistics, or any other evidence, upon which those comments are based.

1. Please provide comment on any or all of the provisions in the proposed guidelines. For each provision commented on please describe (a) the impact of the provision(s) (including any benefits and costs), if any, and (b) what alternatives, if any, ESRB, should consider, as well as the costs and benefits of those alternatives.

2. Do the provisions of the proposed guidelines governing operators' information practices provide "the same or greater protections for children" as those contained in Sections 312.2-312.8 of the Rule?³ Where possible, please cite the relevant sections of both the Rule and the proposed guidelines.

3. Are the mechanisms used to assess operators' compliance with the guidelines effective?⁴ If not, please describe (a) how the proposed guidelines could be modified to satisfy the Rule's requirements, and (b) the costs and benefits of those modifications.

4. Are the incentives for operators' compliance with the guidelines effective?⁵ If not, please describe (a) how the proposed guidelines could be modified to satisfy the Rule's requirements, and (b) the costs and benefits of those modifications.

5. Do the guidelines provide adequate means for resolving consumer complaints? If not, please describe (a) how the proposed guidelines could be modified to resolve consumer complaints adequately, and (b) the costs and benefits of those modifications.

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark,

Secretary.

Community-Based Strategies To Increase HIV Testing of Persons at High Risk in Communities of Color; Notice of Availability of Funds

A. Purpose

Why Are These Funds Being Offered?

For fiscal year 2000, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is offering funds to community-based organizations (CBOs) to implement innovative strategies to increase the number of high-risk persons who receive HIV prevention counseling, testing, and referral services. These CBOs should be working in communities of color (African Americans, Hispanics, American Indians, Asian and Pacific Islanders) and focus special emphasis on trying to reach those who are HIV positive and do not know their status.

Goals

1. To strengthen HIV prevention services provided by CBOs in communities of color which have very high risk of HIV infection.

2. To increase community-based HIV counseling, testing, and referral services.

3. To increase the number of high-risk persons who are tested for HIV infection and find out the test results.

4. To promote successful partnerships to improve HIV testing and prevention efforts.

B. Eligible Applicants

Who Can Apply?

To Be Able To Apply, You Must

1. Have a current non-profit status under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3).

2. Be located in and provide services to communities of color that are in the 40 metropolitan statistical areas (MSAs) with the highest prevalence of reported AIDS cases in communities of color as of 1998 or in any of the counties or cities that had the most syphilis cases in 1999 (see below for a list of the MSAs and high syphilis counties).

3. Have more than half of your executive board or governing group filled by members of the racial/ethnic population you plan to serve.

4. Have more than half of your key management, supervisory, and administrative positions (for example,
