Accent Radio Network was born in the summer of 2000. Jim Feijo of Daniel Chapter One founded the network. It was brought about for the purpose of promoting a God-centered view of health and healing. Through their radio show, Daniel Chapter One HealthWatch, Jim and Tricia Feijo have helped thousands of people get back to God's plan for health, directly from His word. They were equally concerned with exposing the deceptions of Satan in the FDA and Pharmaceutical drug companies. After airing their show on a couple of different networks, Jim and Tricia thought it would be best to put together their own network. This sounded like a great idea, but how would they go about getting it done? After much prayer and thought, they called Jay Harrison who had produced their show at another network. Immediately Jay got to work on building a network capable of airing their message of hope nationally.

Though Daniel Chapter One is our main focus, we've also added shows over the years that provide information on what's happening in our world from a conservative political perspective. Our program line-up is very diverse. Our show content consists of health info, current events, old-time radio, and more. We at ARN are concerned with magnifying Jesus Christ, and we strive to follow His leadership and direction in our jobs as well as our personal lives. It excites us to see Him actively working to make our network what He wants it to be, which is what we desire. We want to make it clear that whatever changes are made in the future of ARN will be brought about by God alone. We hope stations that share a similar philosophy to ours will join ARN and help bring back the correct focus in our nation.

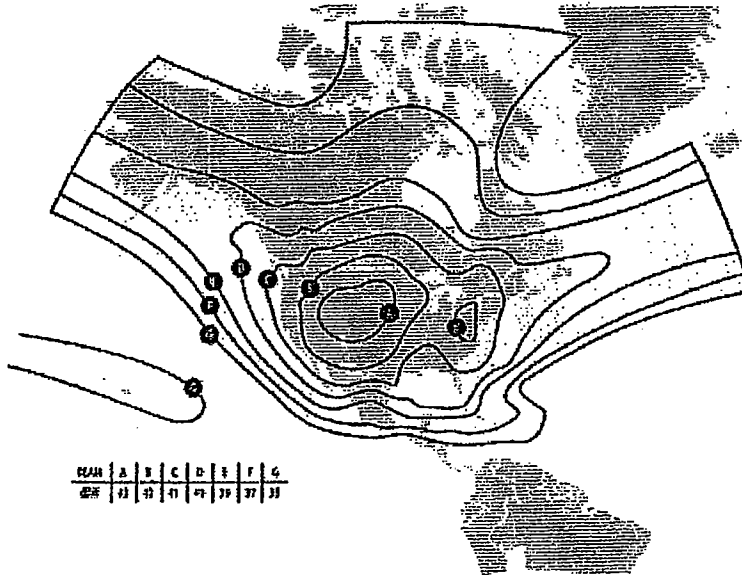

Accent Radio Network Satellite Information:

ARN currently broadcasts on:

Galaxy25, 97 degrees West (formerly Intelsat 5; formerly Talstar 5; formerly Telstar 401) on Free To Air, DVB digital (horizontal polarity). Satellite Galaxy25 is located directly between Galaxy 3C (at 95 degrees West) and Galaxy 16 (formerly Galaxy G4R, at 99 degrees West). To receive ARN programming on Galaxy25, we recommend an FTA DVB satellite dish package, available at www.ARN Dish.com. You can also find more information there, and the folks at SpiritCast will do tech support and help you get your system pointed too.

Galaxy16, 99 degrees West (formerly Galaxy4R) on ComStream digital (horizontal polarity). Satellite Galaxy16 is located directly between AMC4 (formerly Spacenet 4, at 101° West) and Telstar 5 (formerly Telstar 401, at 97 degrees West). To receive ARN programming on Galaxy16, we recommend at least a 10 foot C-band satellite dish with a phase lock loop LNB in the feed horn of the dish. (We strongly recommend the California Amp PLL LNB's model #: 140194; [view image], which cost around $300). The receiver you need to pick up the Accent Radio Network on Galaxy16 is the ComStream ABR202 (or ABR200). For more information on how to add ARN's channel to a new or existing receiver, please click HERE for our instructions page. For a chart of the spring and fall solar outages, please click here.

No Contracts - No Affidavits:

Our programming is available at no charge (on a barter basis) to affiliates. We don't ask for restrictive or complicated affidavits from our affiliates, nor do we try to contract stations into long commitments. Stations can pick up as much of ARN's programming as they'd like. All we ask is that stations call (866-JOIN-ARN) or email us right away and let us know what shows you are carrying, so that we can add you to our affiliate list.

ARN Network Clock:

Accent Radio Network provides 13 minutes of local avails per hour to radio stations.

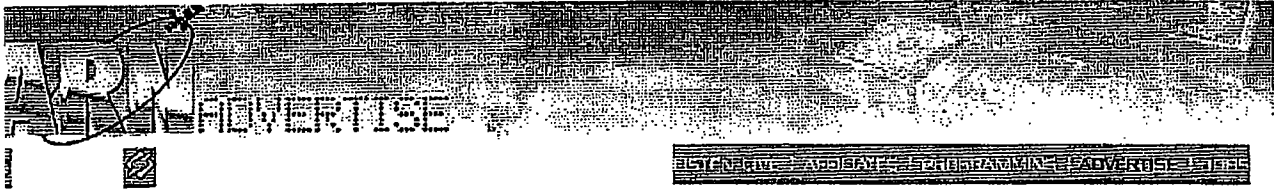

Accent Radio Network does not use sub-audible cue tones to affiliated stations. This is an antiquated way of signaling networked stations for commercial breaks, which was derived in the past when it was next to impossible for the network and radio station to be on the same time. Now, thanks to the availability of low cost GPS satellite linked master clocks, it is very easy and affordable for networks and stations to be precisely time synced together.

We recommend the ESE line of master clocks - such as the ES-101 which is available for $959 through BSW. Or the new, affordable GPS master clock made by Broadcast Tools - the TimeSync Plus, which is available for $349 through BSW.

Put your money where OUR mouth is!

Where are your advertising dollars going? Do you even have an advertising budget? If you don't have money for advertising then there's a flaw in your plan. Your business depends on smart planning in every step, not just location and an attractive storefront. Why is advertising so important? Because less people than you think know you're even there. Yep, that's a harsh reality that our egos don't want to face up to most of the time. But here's a solution. Radio works! Out of all media radio is by far the least expensive, and also the most effective. Radio is intrusive and it's everywhere! Most households have several radios. That's a lot of potential dollars out there just waiting for your message and your story. Put your money where our mouth is: Accent Radio Network! We can do it for you whether you're in a small local market or you want to hit the big time.

To advertise nationally on the Accent Radio Network, please email our sales department.
