ORDER GRANTING UNOPPOSED MOTION OF
NON-PARTY ORACLE CORPORATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE MOTION TO QUASH OR TO LIMIT SUBPOENA *DUCES TECUM

On March 2, 2010, non-party Oracle Corporation (“Oracle”) submitted an Unopposed Motion for an Extension of Time to File a Motion to Quash or Limit (“Motion”) a Subpoena Duces Tecum served by Complaint Counsel on February 24, 2010 (“Subpoena”).

Oracle’s Motion requests an order granting it until March 24, 2010 to file a motion to quash or limit, and further providing that Oracle’s obligation to respond to the Subpoena shall be tolled during that extension period. Oracle states that it is in discussions with Complaint Counsel regarding the scope of the specifications in the Subpoena, Oracle’s objections thereto, and the time required for Oracle to respond. Oracle further states that it has requested, and Complaint Counsel has agreed, that Oracle may have an additional twenty (20) days in which to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena, should the parties’ discussions fail to result in a resolution of all issues.

Oracle represents that the agreed extension will afford sufficient time for review of the Subpoena and discussions with Complaint Counsel, which may result in avoiding altogether the necessity of filing a motion to quash or limit. Oracle advises that it has conferred with Complaint Counsel regarding the instant Motion for an extension of time, and that Complaint Counsel does not object.

Based on the foregoing, the Motion is GRANTED, and it is hereby ORDERED that Oracle shall have until March 24, 2010 to file a motion to quash or limit the Subpoena served upon it by Complaint Counsel on February 24, 2010, and further, that Oracle's obligation to respond to the Subpoena shall be tolled during this extension period.
