1. GENERAL. The shipper must prepare this form in sextuplet for each consignment. A separate TTB F 5170.7 is required for each product covered by an approved formula. Forms must be serially numbered beginning with "1" each calendar year, and running consecutively thereafter to the end of the year. The serial number must be prefixed by the last two digits of the calendar year, e.g., 07-1."

2. PART I. The shipper must prepare Part I. Where the shipment covers wine, enter the tax class of the wine in column 2(h) and disregard column 2(i). Where the shipment covers beer, modify the heading of column 2(g) to read "barrels" and enter quantity in barrels; disregard columns 2(h) and 2(i). After executing his/her application in Part I, the shipper must deliver all copies of the form to the Internal Revenue Agent.

3. PART II. After executing his/her certificate in Part II, the Internal Revenue Agent must forward all copies of the form to The Secretary of the Treasury of Puerto Rico.

4. PART III. After executing his/her permit to ship on all copies of the form, the Secretary must retain one copy, send the original and two copies to the Area Port Director in Puerto Rico, and return two copies to the shipper.

The shipper must then submit the two copies to the Area Port Director in Puerto Rico at least six hours prior to the intended lading of the merchandise.

5. PART IV. The Area Port Director in Puerto Rico, on release of the merchandise for shipment, must execute his/her certificate in Part IV on all copies, retain one copy for his/her files, mail the original to the Director of Customs at the port of arrival in the United States, dispatch a second copy to said Port Director on the vessel concerned for the guidance of the inspector who will handle the cargo, and return two copies to the shipper. After the shipment has been cleared, the shipper must retain one copy of the form and send one copy, with other shipping documents, to the Area Port Director at the port of arrival.

6. PART V. The Area Port Director at the port of arrival in the United States, after executing his certificate on all copies of the form received by him/her, must retain the original for his/her files, and forward the two remaining copies to the District Director, Puerto Rico Operations, TTB, Ste 310 Torre Chardon, 350 Carlos Chardon Ave, San Juan, PR 00918.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT NOTICE

This request is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This information collection documents transactions of taxable commodities on which tax has not been paid. TTB uses the information to determine that the transaction is in accordance with laws and regulations and establish the person responsible for the tax involved in the transaction. Information requested is mandatory by statute (26 USC 5314 and 7652).

The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 30 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper, depending on individual circumstances.
