John Lennon of the Beatles; your telegram of December 2, 1968

On this date I was informed telephonically by the Visa Section of the American Embassy in London, England, that under British law it is not possible to obtain a record of subject's conviction on November 23, 1968, for illegal possession of marijuana from the authorities. However, the Visa Section has been in touch with subject and he has agreed to furnish that office a copy of the record of his conviction, probably within a week or so. When he does so, the Visa Section will forward this office a copy of same for transmittal to you. For your further information, the Visa Section advised that subject's nonimmigrant visa has been cancelled and that they do not propose to entertain an application for another such visa for at least one year.

Dear Sir:

It would be appreciated if you could obtain for this Service a certified record of the conviction of John Lennon of the Beatles in London on November 28, 1968 for illegal possession of marijuana. It would also be appreciated if you would furnish this office a copy of any visa records that you may have relating to John Lennon.

Your cooperation in this matter is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

LENNON GIVEN $360 FINE ON DRUG CHARGE

Case Against His Girl Friend Dismissed

BY ROBERT MERRY

(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

LONDON, Nov. 23 — John Lennon of the Beatles was fined $360 today in west London court after he pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana when police—and two dogs—raided his apartment.

Hand-in-hand with him in court was his Japanese girlfriend, Mrs. Yoko Ono Cox, who faced a similar charge. She was acquitted. Lennon also was ordered to pay $50.40 in prosecution legal costs.

The Beatle listened intently when the magistrate, J. C. Phipps, warned him he would face a jail sentence if convicted of a drug offense again.

Girl fans of the beat group crowded the courtroom but remained silent thruout the hearing.

Dogs Sniff Out Drugs

The prosecutor, Roger Frisby, told how police, using the dogs as sniffers, found quantities of the drug in the raid six weeks ago. He said they discovered an envelope containing 27.3 grains in a suitcase. A binocular case contained 191.8 grains, enough to make 40 cigarets, he said, and traces of the drug also were discovered on a cigaret machine and in a can. Frisby said Lennon claimed full responsibility for the marijuana.

Frisby explained that the Beatle's first marriage had broken down and that Lennon had moved into the apartment with Mrs. Cox three months earlier from his mansion in Weybridge Surrey. When asked by the police how the drug had arrived at the apartment, Lennon replied, "It came with us." Frisby explained Lennon was referring to the move from Weybridge.

The Beatle's lawyer, Martin Polden, told the court, "This young singer's experience with drugs was a personal one which at the time seemed of value, but this experience has long since passed." Polden said Lennon's habit of scribbling songs on scraps of old paper and saving them led to his arrest. He said Lennon refused to throw anything away for fear that they might contain music or lyrics.

Respect for Law

Lennon has abandoned drugs for a deep involvement in eastern philosophy and "has come to accept that the law should be respected," Polden said.

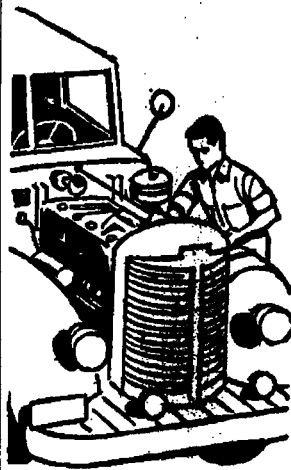

Polden said the arrest had a serious emotional effect on Lennon and Mrs. Cox, who was then expecting a baby by Lennon. Mrs. Cox had a miscarriage in a London nursing home a week ago.

Polden described Lennon as an "artist of note and integrity—one who has brought some pleasure to millions. . . . He has not urged any special treatment for himself."

Lennon, 27, was divorced by his wife, Cynthia, three weeks ago. She received custody of their young son.

When maintenance and repairs begin to wipe out profits, then it is time to get a better truck. Why not select a good truck from those offered in the want ad section of the Tribune?

You have the best opportunity to get the type of truck you want when you shop the want ads in the Tribune. The Tribune brings you a bigger selection of offers of trucks, tractors, and trailers than appear in any other Chicago newspaper. That means many trucks that would interest you are advertised only in the Tribune.

To get the better truck that will increase your business and profits, read the Trucks, Trailers, Tractors columns in the want ad section in today's Chicago Tribune.
