On December 16, 1971, Mr. Orville R. Conley, Jr., Chief of the Nonimmigrant Section, Travel Control, New York City, telephoned and stated he had received an H-1 petition for Mr. and Mrs. John Lennon to appear on the Dick Cavett Show which will be taped at 6 P.M. today. He also had received Forms I-506, with fees, from both of the Lennons.

After discussion, it was agreed we would approve the petition but we would not require a change-of-status application for one appearance. The people were to be told, however, that should they again inquire for permission to accept such employment, they will have to change their status to "H" and then back again to "B".

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF I 129B
SUBMITTED ON BEHALF OF JOHN ONO
LENNON AND YOKO ONO LENNON

STATE OF NEW YORK )
COUNTY OF NEW YORK ) SS.:

JOHN ONO LENNON and YOKO ONO LENNON, each being severally sworn do depose and say:

1. That they are the non-immigrants on whose behalf a
I 129B Petition has been submitted by the Mike Douglas Show and that each make this affidavit in support thereof.

2. JOHN ONO LENNON is a citizen of the United Kingdom and YOKO ONO LENNON is a citizen of Japan, both of whom entered the United States on August 13, 1971 and have been here continually since that date.

3. There is attached hereto, made a part hereof and incorporated by reference, the affidavit on one Allen Klein, President of ABKCO Industries, Inc., previously submitted to Immigration and Naturalization Service, sworn to in September, 1971, in support of a prior application to extend the time of our temporary stay in the United States. We and each of us subscribe to each of the statements contained in Mr. Klein's affidavit and swear to the accuracy thereof as though same were fully and at length set forth herein.

4. Since the date of said affidavit, the custody action in the Federal District Court of the Virgin Islands has proceeded to the point where there is presently pending an Appeal in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the 3rd Circuit, with regard to an order made and entered in the United States District Court, among other things, awarding custody of Mrs. Lennon's daughter, Kyoko, to Mrs. Lennon. Said Appeal is scheduled to be argued in the Court of Appeals on January 24, 1972.

5. An order awarding temporary custody of the infant Kyoko, to her natural father Anthony Cox, was entered in the action pending in the Court of Domestic Relations No 4 of Harris County, Houston, Texas. Such order further provided for Mrs. Lennon to have certain defined visitation with the child.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of the Texas Court Order, Anthony Cox has deliberately withheld such visitation and as a matter of fact, was found to be in contempt of such order and sentenced to a term of imprisonment for five days. Mrs. Lennon, by virtue of Mr. Cox's actions has been denied the visitation awarded to her by the Court.

7. Attached hereto and made a part hereof is a letter dated January 5, 1972, from our Texas attorney indicating that our appearance in Court on February 10, 1972, is essential to the custody action referred to herein and again at a later date for the trial.

8. Notwithstanding the significance of the custody proceeding, and their deep concern and involvement therein, the deponents being somewhat in the category of "worldwide celebrities", have found it necessary to continue some semblance of normal activity. Accordingly, from time to time, deponents have been requested and invited to make appearances and to the best of their recollection, the following is a table of such appearances:

DATE	PLACE	NAME OF SHOW	DEPONENT	REMUNERATION
9/21/71	N.Y.	Dick Cavett	John Ono Lennon Yoko Ono Lennon	$290.00

DATE	PLACE	NAME OF SHOW	DEPONENT	REMUNERATION
12/16/71	N.Y.	David Frost	John Ono Lennon Yoko Ono Lennon	$290.00 $290.00

9. The following schedule, to the best of their recollection sets forth those occasions at which the public attendance of either one or both of the deponents was demanded or required due to their reputation and status in the entertainment field:

DATE	PLACE	NAME OF SHOW	DEPONENT	REMUNERATION
12/10/71	Ann Arbor, Michigan	Ann Arbor Concert	John Ono Lennon Yoko Ono Lennon	None None
12/17/71	N.Y.	Aretha Franklin Show	John Ono Lennon Yoko Ono Lennon	None None
10/14/71	N.Y.	"Free Time" Educational TV	John Ono Lennon Yoko Ono Lennon	None None
12/9/71	N.Y.	"On Women"	Yoko Ono Lennon

10. Due to our acceptance by the public at large as accomplished musicians, authors and entertainers, we have also been requested from time to time to appear and be interviewed as being news-worthy material in which the public would be interested. We have also been interviewed in conjunction with the promotion of books and records and other works of art. The following schedule enumerates, to the best of our recollection those dates:

DATE	PLACE	NAME OF SHOW	DEPONENT	REMUNERATION
9/29/71	N.Y.	Alex Bennett (WPLJ)	Yoko Ono Lennon	None
10/4/71	N.Y.	Joanna Ginsberg	Yoko Ono Lennon	None
12/14/71	N.Y.	Howard Smith	Yoko Ono Lennon	None
	N.Y.	Joanna Ginsberg	Yoko Ono Lennon	None
	N.Y.	Joe Franklin (TV & Radio)	Yoko Ono Lennon	None
	N.Y.	Earl Dowd	Yoko Ono Lennon John Ono Lennon

11. As indicated in the foregoing schedules, most of the appearances set forth above were non-remunerative and constitute either of interviews of the deponents or either of them, and dates for the promotion of certain literary works written by each of the deponents.

12. The files of the Immigration and Naturalization service will reflect that in many of the instances referred to above, no I29 Petitions were filed by the "employer-sponsors". We were advised by these "employer-sponsors", that no application for H-1 status was necessary, since the unions which exercise jurisdiction over such matters required no payment for them, by virtue of the fact that they fell into the categories of personal interviews for news value or promotion of literary works, of which deponents were authors, and thus, were not deemed to be performances.

13. Deponents intended in compliance with the expiration of their visas to leave this Country on or prior to January 31, 1972. Regretably, the current status of the two pending custody proceedings will necessitate an application within the next few days, for an extension of our respective visas to permit us to be present in Court for the actions and hopefully, at the conclusion of the litigations, obtain custody of our daughter.

14. Other than as set forth above, we have no present plans for any future activities other than the defense of the custody actions during our continued stay in the United States.

15. We would hope to continue to reside in the New York area during the remaining period of our visa and any extension thereof which immigration may grant to us.

WHEREFORE, deponents respectfully request the United States Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization to grant the 129B Petitions in connection with the appearances of the deponents on the Mike Douglas Show.

YOKO ONO LENNON

Notary Public, State of New York
No. 57167237
Qualified in New York County

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION TO EXTEND TIME OF TEMPORARY STAY ON BEHALF OF
JOHN ONO LENNON AND YOKO ONO LENNON

STATE OF NEW YORK )
                          ) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

Allen Klein, being duly sworn, deposes
and says:

1. I am President of ABKCO INDUSTRIES, INC. of 1700 Broadway, New York, New York, a publicly held corporation, which acts as the exclusive business manager for JOHN ONO LENNON, YOKO ONO LENNON, GEORGE HARRISON and RICHARD STARKEY, as well as the Apple group of companies. I submit this affidavit in support of the application of John and Yoko Lennon to extend their temporary stay until November 30th, 1971.

2. Mr. and Mrs. Lennon have been in this country since August 13th, 1971 for the purpose of obtaining custody of Mrs. Lennon's daughter, Kyoko, from Mr. Anthony Cox, the child's father and Mrs. Lennon's former husband.

3. On September 16th, 1971, a hearing was held in the Federal District Court of the Virgin Islands, the court which had granted Mr. Cox and Mrs. Lennon a divorce in January 1969, with respect to the question of permanent custody of their child. The judge has reserved his decision on this action. A copy of a newspaper article concerning this hearing is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "A", and is made a part hereof.

4. Notwithstanding the Virgin Islands proceedings, on July 1st, 1971 Mr. Cox brought an action against Mrs. Lennon in the Court of Domestic Relations Number Four of Harris County, Houston, Texas to obtain permanent custody of their child and to enjoin Mrs. Lennon from seeking legal redress in other jurisdictions. A copy of the legal papers served upon Mrs. Lennon is attached hereto and marked Exhibit "B", and is made a part hereof. Mrs. Lennon has interposed an answer, a copy of which is hereto annexed, marked Exhibit "C" and is made a part hereof. Mrs. Lennon's attorney in Houston, Mr. Edward G. Murr, Citizens Bank Building, Suite 700, Houston, Texas, has informed me that this action may come to trial during any day after October 15th, 1971 as the proceedings are noticed for trial. Mr. Murr anticipates such notice.

5. In addition, on September 7th, 1971, Mr. Cox obtained a show cause order seeking temporary custody scheduled for hearing September 27th, 1971. A copy of this order is attached hereto, marked Exhibit "D" and is made a part hereof. Mrs. Lennon's presence will be necessary if she is to successfully contest Mr. Cox's application.

6. It is respectfully submitted that Mrs. Lennon's presence is absolutely vital for the successful defense of Mrs. Cox's application and for Mrs. Lennon to obtain custody of her child. She will be required to attend Court hearings and pre-trial discovery proceedings, the dates of which other than the September 27 hearing cannot now be ascertained with any certainty. She will also be required to meet from time to time with her Texas counsel to review various aspects of the proceedings and to prepare properly for the Texas proceedings.

7. It is also respectfully submitted that in view of the complexity of the custody proceedings as outlined above, it would be economically onerous, physically straining and emotionally draining to require Mrs. Lennon to leave and return to the United States between now and November 30th, 1971, the date requested in Mr. and Mrs. Lennon's application. Mrs. Lennon has not seen her child since May 1971 and prior to that time she had not seen her child since August 1970. Mr. Cox, the child's father, has refused to divulge the whereabouts of the child and has kept the child away from Mrs. Lennon despite her pleas to him. This situation has resulted in severe emotional distress upon Mrs. Lennon.

8. It is also respectfully submitted that Mr. Lennon's presence will be equally vital in either proceedings. Texas counsel has informed me that Mr. Lennon would be required to testify on behalf of Mrs. Lennon in order to establish, among other things, the fitness of Mrs. Lennon as a proper custodian, the type of homelife and his feelings toward the child. Moreover, because of the emotional strain of these custody proceedings upon Mrs. Lennon, Mr. Lennon's physical presence with Mrs. Lennon at all times is obviously necessary.

9. For all of the foregoing reasons, it is respectfully requested that the Immigration and Naturalization Service approve the applications of Mr. John Ono Lennon and Mrs. Yoko Ono Lennon for extensions of their visa until November 30th, 1971, or alternatively to delay their required departure until such date.

Re: Cox Vs. Lennon

Mr. Al Kahn
Abkco Industries, Inc.
1700 Broadway
New York, New York 10019

Dear Mr. Kahn:

As you know, the hearing for the change of temporary custody in the above styled cause is set for February 10, 1972 in the Court of Domestic Relations #4 of Harris County, Texas.

It is essential that both Mr. and Mrs. Lennon be here at that time in order that we may put on testimony to show that Mr. and Mrs. Lennon are qualified to act in the suit for temporary custody. As you know, this is only a temporary hearing and the final hearing on the merits will be held at a later date. Nevertheless, I think we should have Mr. and Mrs. Lennon here a couple of days prior to February 10th, in order that we may discuss this matter with them and go into great detail concerning their qualifications in the temporary custody matter.

As yet we have not been able to take depositions and interrogatories concerning both Mr. and Mrs. Lennon and Mr. Cox. The lawyers for Mr. Cox have indicated to us that they desire to take these interrogatories and depositions in April or May of this year so that we can perpetuate testimony for the final trial on the merits of this matter.

Again, I stress the importance of having both Mr. and Mrs. Lennon here for the hearing set for February 10, 1972, or a couple of days prior to that date so we may discuss this matter with them.

Very truly yours,

Edward G. Murr

John Lennon, A17 597 321

On September 2, 1971, Immigration Examiner John Pierce, New York City district office telephoned to advise that an I-129B petition had been filed by the Dick Cavett Show to have the subject and his wife appear on the television show on September 8, 1971. Form I-506 application for change in nonimmigrant classification has also been filed. The stay of the subject and his wife in their present temporary visitor status expires September 24, 1971. Subject has been granted a section 212(d)(3) authorization.

On September 3, 1971, Abe Spivack, Assistant District Director, Travel Control, New York City was advised as follows:

The H-1 petition for the subject with stay authorized until September 24, 1971 may be approved. His I-506 application may also be approved.

The subject's wife would automatically be classified H-4 upon approval of the H-1 classification for the subject with stay authorized for the same period. However, she can appear on the Dick Cavett Show as an H-4 only if she is not an entertainer by profession and is not being paid. (8 CFR 214.2(h)(4)) If she is an entertainer by profession, or if she is to be paid, a separate petition according her H-1 or H-2 classification must be filed and approved. As no evidence has been submitted that she is an H-1 alien, an H-2 petition with the requisite supporting document from Labor Department must be filed in her behalf.
