ORDER ON RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS AD TESTIFICANDUM

On April 19, 2004, Respondent, pursuant to Rule 3.34(a)(2) of the Commission's Rules of Practice, filed a motion for the issuance of four subpoenas commanding persons to attend and give testimony at the adjudicative hearing in this matter. According to Respondent's final witness list, which provides a brief description of the intended testimony of each individual, the testimony sought appears to be reasonably relevant. Respondent has represented that the individuals are located in the United States. Complaint Counsel does not oppose Respondent's motion.

The motion is GRANTED. Respondent shall arrange an appropriate time to pick up the signed subpoenas. This Order does not constitute a ruling on the admissibility of testimony from the witnesses.
