UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES

| | JEUN JEUN |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| In the Matter of |) |
| EVANSTON NORTHWESTERN HEALTHCARE CORPORATION, |) · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · |
| and |) Docket No. 9315 |
| ENH MEDICAL GROUP, INC., Respondents. |)) |
| · |) |

ORDER ON RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS AD TESTIFICANDUM

On March 10, 2005, Respondent, pursuant to Rule 3.34(a)(2) of the Rules of Practice, filed a motion for the issuance of a subpoena commanding nine people to attend and give testimony at the adjudicative hearing in this matter. According to Respondent's final witness list, which provides a brief description of the intended testimony of each individual, the testimony sought appears to be reasonably relevant. Respondent has represented that the individual is located in the United States. Complaint Counsel does not oppose the request.

The motion is GRANTED. Respondent shall arrange an appropriate time to pick up the signed subpoena. This Order does not constitute a ruling on the admissibility of testimony from the witnesses.

ORDERED:

Stephen J. McGuire

Chief Administrative Law Judge

Date: March 16, 2005