Contacting Corporate Consumer Affairs Departments

The following directory lists the addresses and phone numbers for hundreds of corporations. Many companies have a consumer affairs department that handles consumer questions and concerns. Consumer affairs offices are set up within companies because they want to hear from you. If you do not find the company you are looking for, try checking your public libraries for the following resources:

- The Standard & Poor's Register of Corporations, Directors and Executives
- Trade Names Directory
- Standard Directory of Advertisers
- Dun & Bradstreet Directory

To identify the name of a company that manufactures a specific product, check the product label and other documents given to you at the time of your purchase. The Thomas Register of American Manufacturers, another resource available at many public libraries, might also be helpful. It lists the manufacturers of thousands of products.

If you have a complaint about an item or service, it is usually best to go back to the seller BEFORE you contact the companies in this directory. Follow up with a letter, phone call, or e-mail message to the consumer affairs department of the company to let it know about your complaint and whether the seller was able to resolve your problem.
