A Word About NASS Reports...

The Agricultural Statistics Board (ASB) publishes reports of State and U.S. production, stocks, inventories, disposition, utilization, and prices of agricultural inputs and commodities, and other items such as labor, farm numbers, and agricultural chemical usage.

National reports are issued from the Washington, D.C., Headquarters. Individual State reports are issued from the Field Offices (FOs) following release of the national reports. Printed copies of both ASB and FO reports are available for a fee.

An abundance of agricultural information is available to data users through our programs. In addition to the information above, estimates on more specialized commodities, including hop stocks, mink, cherries, cranberries, lentils, and peppermint oil are also available. The information is geared toward producers and can help them plan planting, feeding, breeding, and marketing programs. The data are also used by agricultural organizations, services, businesses, trade groups, and financial institutions to determine demand for inputs, resources, transportation, and storage-related crop and livestock products. Data are used to make and carry out agricultural policy concerning farm program legislation, commodity programs, agricultural research, and rural development.

Data Security Is Our Top Priority. Names, addresses, and personal identifiers are never revealed. NASS survey and census data never leave NASS control.

Only authorized persons working for NASS as employees or sworn partners, who are subject to fines and imprisonment for unauthorized disclosure, can access NASS data and only for approved statistical purposes. NASS does not conduct surveys or provide data for private, proprietary purposes.

When NASS collects data for others in a NASS-approved statistical study, farmers and ranchers will always be informed about the cooperating sponsor and participation will always be voluntary.

Summary data from all NASS surveys and censuses are available to everyone, but will never disclose individual reported information.

NASS Revision Policy

Most estimates are subject to revision, if necessary, when the next estimate is prepared. Revisions are made to provide data users with the best possible data for evaluating the current estimates. Revisions are based on additional information, such as new surveys, late reports, corrected data, or more complete administrative data.

Understanding USDA Crop Forecasts

The publication describes the statistical methodology used by the National Agricultural Statistics Service to prepare the crop forecasts to give users of the data a better understanding. This is followed by a similar description of the world agriculture supply and demand estimates prepared by the WAOB. This publication is also available in Spanish, Russian and Chinese. To obtain a copy of this publication call Customer Service at (800) 727-9540 and ask for Miscellaneous Publication No. 1554.

NASS Homepage -- www.nass.usda.gov

Through a cooperative project with Cornell University, the Albert R. Mann Library distributes NASS, Economic Research Service (ERS), and World Agricultural Outlook Board (WAOB) periodicals and data files via the USDA Economics and Statistics System on a web server. Over 500 reports annually are available free of charge. All NASS reports and WAOB's World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates (WASDE) are available electronically within minutes of release.

A calendar of scheduled releases is available from the NASS Homepage. In the right navigation bar under Find NASS Publications, click on By Date and choose the year and month.

NASS Subject Specialists on the Internet

Quick Stats - Agricultural Statistics Data Base

U.S. and State information, published in NASS national reports, is available in an online database via the Internet FREE OF CHARGE. The database allows custom extracts based on commodity, year, State, and other selection criteria and produces an output file compatible for updating databases and spreadsheets for selected commodities. The database can be accessed from the NASS Homepage at: www.nass.usda.gov under the heading "Data and Statistics".

County level data are also available via Quick Stats. The data include the total crops for each county and breakouts for irrigated and non-irrigated practices for many crops, for selected States. The database allows custom extracts based on commodity, year, selected counties within a State, or all counties in one or more States. The county data includes totals for the Agricultural Statistics Districts (county groupings) and the State. The download data files contain planted and harvested area, yield per acre, and production.

Another method for customers to access crops county data is via pre-extracted files. The pre-extracted data files, in Comma-Separated Value (CSV) format, are available for the current year, as well as historical years. These files were extracted from the Quick Stats and contain total crop and cropping practices for each county. These files are located from the NASS Homepage by clicking on Data and Statistics.

District forecasts are also available for selected States during the current year. To access these forecasts from the NASS Homepage, click on Data and Statistics. The forecasts can be found under the State and County heading on the Quick Stats page.

Rich Site Summary (RSS) Alerts

RSS feeds are free content feeds from Web sites that contain article headlines, summaries and links back to full-text articles on the web.

RSS uses XML technology to syndicate web content, sending it directly to your desktop, your web browser, or an web-based RSS reader. Instead of visiting a specific Web site to search for new articles and features, RSS is a convenient way to alert you when content of interest appears on your favorite Web sites.

Currently NASS offers national feeds for its News and Coming Events, Today's Reports, and Census of Agriculture. Several NASS field offices have also made feeds available for download. For more information visit:

Data Users Meetings Give Us Your Feedback!

NASS sponsors annual U. S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) data users meetings to solicit comments and suggestions from users of statistical and economic reports issued by NASS, World Agricultural Outlook Board, Economic Research Service, Foreign Agricultural Service, Agricultural Marketing Service, and the Foreign Trade Division from the Census Bureau.

These meetings provide an open forum where representatives of the data programs are available to answer questions about their agency's current programs and receive public suggestions for possible changes.

Proceedings are prepared from some of the meetings and provided to the participants.

These meetings are announced on the Internet at the NASS homepage www.nass.usda.gov under "Headlines" as soon as they are scheduled for the upcoming year.

Written comments concerning the data users meetings, questions, or requests for additional information are welcomed. Please direct comments or questions to Marie Jordan, USDA-NASS, Room 5029 South Building, Washington, DC 20250-2000. Phone (202) 690-8141, fax (202) 690-1311, or e-mail marie_jordan@nass.usda.gov.

CropScape Geospatial Data Portal. NASS is pleased to offer the new CropScape geospatial data portal available at http://nassgeodata.gmu.edu/CropScape that provides open online access to agricultural geospatial Cropland Data Layer (CDL) products; thereby offering a service that links agriculture, statistics, and space. CropScape offers advanced tools such as interactive visualization, web-based geospatial queries, and data dissemination in a publicly accessible online environment.

The CDL data product is a crop-specific land cover categorization covering the continental U.S. at 30-meter (0.22 acres per pixel) resolution for crop year 2011. The categorization uses imagery from the Resourcest-1 AWiFS, Terra MODIS and Landsat satellites. The data are not limited to just 2011; all previous CDL data, going back to 1997, when NASS's cropland monitoring program first started, can also be accessed online through CropScape. Census of Agriculture

The Census is conducted every 5 years to obtain agricultural statistics for each county, State, and the Nation.

The Census is the leading source of statistics about the Nation's agricultural production and the only source of consistent, comparable data at the county, State, and national levels. The Census is authorized by law under Title 7, U.S. code, and is conducted in close cooperation with the Nation's agricultural user groups and farmer organizations.

The Census includes all places from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products, including government payments, were produced and sold, or normally would have been sold, during the census year.

Special Studies and Censuses are conducted as follow-on programs to the Census. The follow-on programs include an Organic Production Survey, a Farm and Ranch Irrigation Survey, an On-Farm Renewable Energy Production Survey, and a Census of Horticultural Specialties. The Organic Production Survey and On-Farm Renewable Energy Production Survey are both new projects.

NASS MISSION

To provide timely, accurate, and useful statistics in service to U.S. agriculture.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Many thanks to the farmers, ranchers, and producers across the nation who willingly participate in the surveys with the National Agricultural Statistics Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture. They are the strength behind the NASS agricultural inventory, production, price and environmental information, products and services. We appreciate their support and cooperation—they are the cornerstone of the food and fiber system that feeds and clothes the world.
