RESPONDENTS' MOTION TO EXTEND THE TIME FOR FILING ANSWERS TO ADMISSIONS AND TO MODIFY THE SCHEDULING ORDER
DATED AUGUST 2, 2004

On October 25, 2004, Complaint counsel served on counsel for Respondents Chhabra, Chhabra Group, LLC and Dynamic Health of Florida, LLC (“Respondents”) its First Set of Interrogatories to Respondents and First Request for Production of Documentary Material and Tangible Things. On November 2, 2004, Complaint counsel served on counsel for Respondents its Request for Admissions. For the reason set forth below, Respondents request until December 15, 2004 to fully respond to these pleadings.

On or about October 26, 2004, Janet Kravitz, wife of Respondents’ counsel and partner in Kravitz & Kravitz, LLC, was preliminarily diagnosed with breast cancer. This diagnosis was confirmed on November 1, 2004. Janet Kravitz is presently scheduled for surgery on November 15, 2004. After surgery, a regimen of chemotherapy will be initiated. At a minimum, Respondents' counsel will be unable to fully undertake the responsibilities of this case for at least three weeks. As a result of the foregoing, Respondents' counsel had to cancel his trip to Florida on October 31, 2004 to meet with Mr. Chhabra, interview witnesses and review potential documents. Kravitz & Kravitz, LLC is a small Columbus, Ohio firm that ordinarily does not undertake work before the Federal Trade Commission. There is no one at the firm that can take over the responsibilities of this case.

As a practical matter, as a result of the administrative subpoenas issued prior to the commencement of this lawsuit, as well as the initial disclosures of the parties and the issuance of third party subpoenas, the case is progressing. Notwithstanding Janet Kravitz's illness, Respondents' counsel intends to respond to Complaint Counsel's discovery requests in a timely fashion but needs some relief from the response dates in the discovery requests and the dates set forth in the August 2, 2004 Scheduling Order.<sup>1</sup>

Specifically, it is requested that the deadline for issuing document requests, admissions and subpoenas duces tecum be extended until November 30, 2004. Respondents' counsel also requests that the discovery deadlines in the Scheduling Order be extended for thirty days.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that notice to Complaint counsel of Respondents' experts be extended to December 15, 2004, that the deadline for issuing document requests, admissions and subpoenas duces tecum be extended to November 30, 2004, and that the discovery deadlines in the case be extended for thirty days.

<sup>1</sup> In a prior pleading filed with this Court, Respondents' counsel noted that he was scheduled to be in India for a large part of December 2004, and also out of the country for one week in February 2005. This representation is no longer accurate. Respondents' counsel has cancelled his trip to India. Respondents' counsel will be able to work on this case in some capacity during December 2004 and will probably cancel his trip scheduled during February 2005.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ Max Kravitz
