1. PURPOSE

Pursuant to the authority in Reference (a), this Instruction:

1.1. Assigns the Commander, U.S. Joint Forces Command (USJFCOM) the responsibility for JIT, as a subset of the larger responsibility for providing joint training and leading the collaborative development of joint training standards, processes, and programs in accordance with Reference (b).

1.2. Assigns the Commander, USJFCOM, the responsibility for implementing JIT for the Joint Intelligence Operations Centers (JIOCs), in accordance with Reference (c), as part of the larger requirement for functional baseline capabilities with respect to doctrine, organization, training, materiel, leadership and education, personnel, and facilities.

1.3. Provides policies and procedures and assigns responsibilities for planning, programming, and budgeting (PP&B) for the conduct of JIT.

² On a need-to-know basis, a copy can be requested from the J-2/Joint Staff at 703-614-7816. This is a classified document and is not releasable to the public.

1.4. Supersedes Reference (d) to continue to authorize the USJFCOM Joint Forces Intelligence Training Council (JFITC) as the advisory body on JIT that reports to the DoD Intelligence Training and Education Board (DITEB).

1.5. Implements the responsibilities of the Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence (USD(I)) for training transformation (T2) in accordance with DoD Directive 1322.18 (Reference (e)).

2. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the ~~Office of the Secretary of Defense OSD~~, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard at all times, including when it is a Service in the Department of Homeland Security by agreement with that Department), the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the ~~Department of Defense DoD~~, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities in the ~~Department of Defense DoD~~ (hereafter referred to collectively as the “DoD Components”).

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1. JIT. Fundamental training that guides the development and utilization of intelligence professionals and organizations designed to support two or more Services employed in coordinated action.

3.2. Joint Training System (JTS). As defined in Reference (e) and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Instruction 3500.01D (Reference (f)), the JTS aligns training strategy with assigned missions. It is designed to produce trained and ready individuals, units, and staffs. It assists commanders to define the required level of individual, collective, and staff performance; determine the current levels of performance; execute training programs to improve performance; and assess those levels of performance relative to the required level.

3.3. T2. An initiative to provide dynamic, capabilities-based training for the Department of Defense in support of national security requirements across the Military Services, Federal agencies, international coalitions, international organizations, and State, local, and nongovernmental organizations.

3.4. Universal Joint Task List. See Joint Publication 1-02 (Reference (g)).

4. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

4.1. JIT shall focus on support to the warfighter and be aligned with other joint training programs, with respect to supporting the Defense Intelligence Operations Coordination Center (DIOCC), JIOCs, and other intelligence mission areas.

4.2. JIT requirements and activities shall be included in PP&B actions and support all missions of the Department of Defense.

4.3. Joint intelligence distributed learning shall comply with existing DoD distributed learning guidance in accordance with DoD Instruction 1322.26 (Reference (h)).

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1. The USD(I), in accordance with Reference (a), shall:

5.1.1. Provide a representative to the T2 oversight and related working groups (e.g., the Executive Steering Group Committee, the Senior Advisory Group, and the Joint Integrated Process Team (JIPT)).

5.1.2. Develop a coordinated resource strategy to execute JIT, to include establishing a JIT program element within the Military Intelligence Program and programmatic support for JIT in the National Intelligence Program.

5.1.3. Provide policy guidance and oversight to JIT. The DITEB shall serve as the primary integrating forum for the family of supporting training councils, to include the JFITC.

5.1.4. Provide a representative to the JFITC.

5.2. The Heads of the Defense Intelligence Components and, under the USD(I), the Director of the ~~DoD Counterintelligence Field Activity~~ Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA), and the Director of the Defense Security Service, shall:

5.2.1. Provide a representative to the JFITC.

5.2.2. Identify a subject matter expert (SME) for all levels of intelligence-related Universal Joint Tasks. Specific SME focus areas shall include:

5.2.2.1. For the Director, ~~of the Defense Intelligence Agency DIA:~~ analysis, collection, production, and integration of intelligence, counterintelligence, and dissemination of human intelligence and measurement and signature intelligence.

5.2.2.2. For the Director of the National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency: geospatial intelligence.

5.2.2.3. For the Director of the National Security Agency/Central Security Service: signals intelligence.

5.2.2.4.–For the ~~Director of the DoD Counterintelligence Field Activity~~ Director of the Defense Counterintelligence and Human Intelligence (HUMINT) Center, under the authority, direction and control of the Director, DIA: counterintelligence and HUMINT.

5.2.2.5. For the Director of the Defense Security Service: security.

5.2.2.6. For the Director of the National Reconnaissance Office: space reconnaissance capabilities and integration.

5.3. The Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics shall provide policy guidance and oversight, in accordance with Reference (e) and DoD Directive 5134.01 (Reference (i)), as applicable, to USJFCOM modeling and simulation (M&S) efforts in support of JIT as described in DoD Directive 5000.59 (Reference(j)).

5.4. The Heads of the DoD Components shall:

5.4.1. Support joint intelligence resident and non-resident training, and provide funding to address their JIT requirements.

5.4.2. Leverage Joint Reserve Intelligence Center use, whenever operationally feasible, to support the defense intelligence enterprise to meet joint training and mission support requirements described in DoD Instruction 3305.07 (Reference (k)).

5.4.3. Provide funding as appropriate for this joint intelligence capability.

5.5. The Secretaries of the Military Departments shall:

5.5.1. Designate a JIT office of primary responsibility (OPR) from each of the following Military Service elements to represent their joint interoperability and Service intelligence functions within the JIT system:

5.5.1.1. The Service Intelligence Element.

5.5.1.2. The Service training and education headquarters.

5.5.1.3. The Service intelligence school(s).

5.5.1.4. The Service counterintelligence training authorities.

5.5.2. Provide a representative to the JFITC.

5.6. The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall:

5.6.1. Establish a Joint Staff element responsible for all JIT functions and intelligence-related Universal Joint Tasks (Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Manual 3500.04D (Reference (1))), consistent with the guidance set forth in Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff directives (Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Instructions and Manuals) for the JTS.

5.6.2. Include appropriate guidance for JIT in the functional areas identified in subparagraph 5.8.1. of this Instruction in all Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff directives.

5.6.3. Provide a representative to the JFITC.

5.7. The Commanders of the Combatant Commands, through the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, shall:

5.7.1. Identify an OPR to represent all aspects of JIT, as identified in subparagraph 5.8.1.

5.7.2. Identify a SME for joint intelligence-related Universal Joint Tasks in coordination with the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Commander, USJFCOM.

5.7.3. Include appropriate guidance for JIT into command joint training instructions.

5.7.4. Support and maximize the use of the Regional Joint Intelligence Training Facilities.

5.7.5. Provide a representative to the JFITC.

5.8. The Commander, USJFCOM, through the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and in addition to the responsibilities listed in paragraph 5.7., shall:

5.8.1. Administer a JIT capability that provides the following:

5.8.1.1. JIT program management.

5.8.1.2. Requirements and capabilities development.

5.8.1.3. Training development.

5.8.1.4. Training execution.

5.8.1.5. Training assessment.

5.8.1.6. Exercise planning and execution.

5.8.1.7. M&S.

5.8.1.8. Readiness reporting.

5.8.2. Serve as the lead integrator for JIT requirements with the responsibility to:

5.8.2.1. Develop recommended program roles, responsibilities, and authorities for implementing key components of the program.

5.8.2.2. Integrate PP&B requirements.

5.8.2.3. Collect, validate, and prioritize joint training requirements.

5.8.2.4. Develop JIT standards for use in certification and accreditation.

5.8.2.5. Develop an assessment process and metrics to assess overall JIT performance and effectiveness.

5.8.3. Develop a supporting joint intelligence M&S strategy.

5.8.4. Identify a SME for maintaining intelligence-related Universal Joint Tasks in coordination with the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff lead for the Universal Joint Task List.

5.8.5. Include JIT training guidance in USJFCOM instructions and manuals, especially with respect to the JIOCs.

5.8.6. Provide a representative to the T2 oversight and related working groups (e.g., the Executive Steering Group Committee, the Senior Advisory Group, and the JIPT).

5.8.7. Chair and provide a representative to the JFITC.

6. JFITC PROCEDURES

6.1. The JFITC shall be chaired by the Commander, USJFCOM. JFITC membership shall comprise a representative from each of the Defense Intelligence Components according to Reference (a), the Combatant Commands, and others as determined by the Chair.

6.2. JFITC emphasis shall be on functional training aimed at joint individual and collective intelligence skills development guided by strong linkages to the DoD T2 program. JFITC operational efforts shall focus on satisfying DIOCC and JIOC training requirements and shall:

6.2.1. Align joint intelligence training with the priorities and recommendations for defense intelligence training and education in References (a) and (c) and Secretary of Defense Report (Reference (m)).

6.2.2. Establish working groups, as needed, as sub-elements to the JFITC to conduct special reviews or develop products for follow-on discussion with the JFITC at large.

6.2.3. Oversee the development and execution of a JIT strategy and associated JIT resources.

6.2.4. Prepare an annual report on the activities of the JFITC for submission to the USD(I) and JFITC members.

6.2.5. Provide periodic updates, reports, recommendations, and briefings to the DITEB and the Defense Intelligence Human Resource Board as requested or required.

7. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

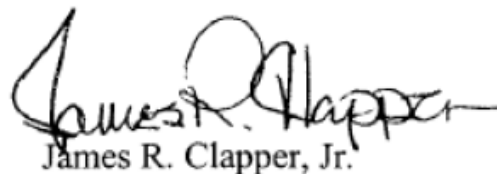

The JFITC annual report to the USD(I) and periodic updates to the DITEB are exempt from licensing in accordance with subparagraph C4.4.4. of DoD 8910.1-M (Reference (n)).

8. RELEASABILITY

UNLIMITED. This Instruction is approved for public release. Copies may be obtained through the Internet from the DoD Issuances Web Site at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives>.

9. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Instruction is effective immediately.
