

Travis Coleman

Agency Lead Negotiator
California

Email: Travis.Coleman@ihs.gov

Travis A. Coleman is a member of the Cold Springs Rancheria of Mono Indians of California. Mr. Coleman is an ALN and Acting Indian Self-Determination Program Manager for the California Area office (IHS/CAO). Mr. Coleman began his Federal career in July 2007 with the IHS/CAO as a Contract Specialist. Prior to beginning his Federal service, Mr. Coleman was the Tribal Chairman of the Cold Springs Rancheria from May 2005 until joining IHS. In May of 1981, while still in high school, he was elected to the Tribal Council and served in various capacities (Vice-Chairman, Secretary/Treasurer and Council member) for 24 years. While on the Tribal Council, Mr. Coleman also served on various boards, committees and workgroups for his Tribe; the state of California; the county of Fresno; and local governments including the Sierra Unified School District. Mr. Coleman attended California State University, Fresno, majoring in Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting.

