

Anna W. Johnson

Program Analyst

Albuquerque and Oklahoma Areas

Ms. Johnson is an enrolled member of the Crow Tribe of Montana and is also Fort Peck Assiniboine and Sioux. She joined the OTSG staff under the IHS Career Opportunity Training Agreement program as a Program Analyst. She receives on the job training assignments that provide practical study and understanding of the organization and its programs, policies, and objectives, specifically those associated with the Tribal Self-Governance Program. She assists the OTSG Director, Deputy Director, and Analysts and other offices within the IHS on all issues relating to the Tribal Self-Governance Program. Ms. Johnson serves as the OTSG representative during negotiations with the Oklahoma City and the Albuquerque Areas. She is responsible for the review of new and renewed Compact and Funding Agreement language for compliance to Title V legislation, and she works with Tribes and other IHS staff at all levels in matters related to the Tribal Self-Governance Program. She also assists in: (1) coordinating and participating in Tribal Consultation activities, (2) coordinating activities pertaining to Tribal Delegation Meetings for Tribes with Self-Governance Compacts under Title V of the ISDEAA, and (3) activities pertaining to the Tribal Self-Governance Cooperative Agreements. Prior to joining the OTSG staff, she worked with the Public Affairs Staff at IHS for eight years.

