

2010 ELECTION RESULTS

The following two sections present the primary, runoff and general election results for the U.S. Congressional elections held in 2010.

The November 2010 general election resulted in the election of the 112th Congress. The following is the party composition of the 112th Congress, as determined by the results of these elections:

U.S. Senate

Democrats: 51
Republicans: 47
Independents: 2

U.S. House of Representatives

Republicans: 242
Democrats: 193
Independents: 0

Notes on Charts

* Runoff election vote totals have been included with the primary election totals. (For the U.S. Senate, runoff elections were held in Arkansas and North Carolina. For the U.S. House of Representatives, runoff elections were held in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Texas.)

* For states that had votes for both full and unexpired terms, the votes for both terms are included in the totals. This applies to Illinois (Senate), New York (Senate), Indiana (IN/03) and New York (NY/29).

The following three situations account for blank spaces in the charts and should be considered when making comparisons or drawing conclusions about the vote totals.

* In some states, i.e., Connecticut, Utah and Virginia, political parties may nominate general election candidates by party convention, rather than by primary election.

* In some states, there were unopposed candidates whose names did not appear on a ballot and therefore received no votes.

* 34 states had regularly scheduled U.S. Senate elections in 2010.
