

CYNTHIA T. PANGALLO

Cynthia Pangallo is a Special Agent (SA) with the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Office of Inspector General (HHS-OIG). She has been working in that capacity for over twenty-two years. SA Pangallo is currently detailed as a Program Manager to the Inspector General Criminal Investigator Academy (IGCIA), where she is responsible for the development, implementation, and management of the Inspector General Investigator Training Program (IGITP) and the Basic Non-Criminal Investigator Training Program (BNCITP).

Prior to her detail to the IGCI, SA Pangallo was assigned to the HHS-OIG Field Office in Buffalo, New York. During her career, SA Pangallo conducted numerous complex criminal and civil health care fraud investigations, which resulted in over $100 million in recoveries to the Medicare program. SA Pangallo is the recipient of several commendations for her investigative work, including the Award for Excellence in Investigation from the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency, the Award for Excellence from the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency, the Group Achievement Award from the Federal Law Enforcement Officer's Association, and the Inspector General's Exceptional Achievement Award.

SA Pangallo graduated with honors from the State University of New York College at Buffalo. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Criminal Justice and a minor in Sociology.
