

STEPHEN CARLTON

BAR ADMISSIONS District of Columbia, 1982

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

- 1990-present Assistant United States Attorney, Southern District of Florida
West Palm Beach, FL
Trial attorney responsible for grand jury investigations and trial prosecutions of a wide variety of federal criminal conduct including public corruption, investment fraud, health care fraud, securities fraud, narcotics, tax violations and money laundering. Two-time recipient of Director's Award for Superior Performance as an AUSA.
- 1998-2001 Deputy Chief, General Crimes Section, U.S. Attorney's Office
West Palm Beach, FL
Supervised general crimes section of twelve federal prosecutors responsible for investigating and prosecuting a wide variety of criminal offenses.
- 1984-1990 Trial Attorney, Tax Division, U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. Trial attorney, litigated federal civil tax cases throughout the United States

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2009 Visiting Lecturer, OPDAT, Uganda, part of three-teacher team that designed, implemented, and taught week-long course for attorneys, agents and judges on public corruption, investigative techniques, criminal discovery, ethics issues, money laundering, prosecutorial misconduct
- 1988-1990 Adjunct Instructor, Washington College of Law, The American University
Washington, D.C. legal writing and research

EDUCATION

- J.D. (1982) Washington College of Law, The American University, cum laude
1980-82, American University Law Review
- B.A. (1979) Wake Forest University, magna cum laude, History-Spanish Double Major
1979, Phi Beta Kappa
1977 Academic scholarship, Universidad de los Andes, Bogotá, Colombia