
Privacy Act Waiver – Financial Information

In accordance with the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, Peace Corps personnel, under most circumstances, may not release to third parties any information in a system of records regarding U.S. citizens without the express written consent of the concerned citizen(s).

If you would like your financial information released to any person other than yourself, please complete the authorization below.

Authorization

I authorize the Peace Corps to disclose to the person identified below all matters concerning any financial information within a Peace Corps system of records kept under my name and/or social security number. This authorization includes, but is not limited to, release of my W-2 and disclosure of information relating to my student loans. I understand that signing this form will not result in Peace Corps automatically releasing anything other than a duplicate copy of my W-2 to the person identified below. The person identified below must contact the Peace Corps to request any additional financial information.
