SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on April 25, 2011, based on a complaint filed by Microsoft of Redmond, Washington. 76 Fed. Reg. 22918. The complaint, as amended, alleges a violation of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain handheld electronic computing devices, related software, and components thereof by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 5,778,372; 5,889,522; 6,339,780 (“the ’780 patent”); 6,891,551; and 6,957,233. The ’780 patent has been terminated from the investigation based on complainant’s partial withdrawal of the complaint. See ALJ’s Order No. 31 and Commission Notice Not to Review dated January 26 and February 14, 2012, respectively. The complaint further alleges the existence of a domestic industry. The Commission’s notice of investigation named several respondents including Barnes & Noble, Inc. and barnesandnoble.com, LLC (collectively, “Barnes & Noble”), both of New York, New York.

On December 7, 2011, complainant Microsoft moved for summary determination that it satisfied the economic prong of the domestic industry requirement. The Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the motion and Barnes & Noble opposed the motion. No other party responded to the motion.

On February 6, 2012, the ALJ issued the subject ID granting complainant’s motion. On February 14, 2012, Barnes & Noble petitioned for review of the ID, and on February 22, 2012, the Commission investigative attorney and Microsoft filed briefs in opposition to respondents’ petition.

The Commission has determined not to review the ID.

The authority for the Commission’s determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, and in section 210.42(h) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, 19 C.F.R. § 210.21, 210.42(h).

By order of the Commission.
