The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”) has jurisdiction over American Express Bank, FSB (“AEBFSB” or “the Bank”) pursuant to section 1002(6), 1025 and 1053(b) of the Consumer Financial Protection Act (“CFP Act”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5481(6), 5515 and 5563(b).

I. OVERVIEW

The CFPB finds that AEBFSB has engaged in violations of various federal consumer financial laws, including violations of:

- (1) Sections 1031 and 1036 of the CFP Act (“Sections 1031 and 1036”), 12 U.S.C. §§ 5531 and 5536, for deceptive debt collection practices;
- (2) The Truth in Lending Act (“TILA”), as amended by the Credit CARD Act of 2009, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1601 et seq., and section 1026.52(b)(1) of Regulation Z,

12 C.F.R. § 1026.52(b)(1),¹ for charging unlawful late fees on certain hybrid charge cards; and

- (3) The Fair Credit Reporting Act (“FCRA”), 15 U.S.C. §§ 1681 et seq., for failing to report certain consumer disputes to consumer reporting agencies (“CRAs”).

The CFPB further finds that the Bank has failed to manage its compliance with Federal consumer financial laws and regulations adequately relating to the Bank’s Compliance Risk Management Program (“CRMP”) and the Bank’s oversight of affiliate and third-party service providers (“Service Providers”).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the CFPB’s targeted review of AEBFSB and resulting Supervisory Letter dated June 14, 2012 (“Supervisory Letter”), the CFPB finds the following facts:

- (1) Deceptive Debt Collection Practices. In connection with the collection of consumer debt:

- (a) Unreported Debt shall mean consumer debt that has been in collections or charged off and is no longer being reported by the Bank to CRAs. AEBFSB misrepresented to certain customers that settlement of Unreported Debt would be reflected on the consumers’ credit report and that payment could improve the consumers’ credit score; and

- (b) Certain debt settlement letters that stated that after settlement, the consumers’ remaining debt would be “waived” or “forgiven” were misleading because the Bank failed to prominently disclose that the consumer must pay the full debt balance before the Bank would process any future credit or charge card application.

(2) Excessive Hybrid Card Late Fees. AEBFSB offered consumers the option of having a hybrid account for a charge card with revolving credit features that allowed the consumers to pay a portion of their outstanding balances over time (“Hybrid Card”). Under section 1026.52(b)(1) of Regulation Z, AEBFSB is permitted to charge consumers with these accounts a late fee based on costs or based on a safe harbor provided in the regulation. Instead of basing the fees on cost or charging fees of a specified dollar amount as permitted by the safe harbor, AEBFSB unlawfully charged consumers 2.99% of a portion of their delinquent balance.

(3) Reporting of Credit Disputes. FCRA requires a creditor to report to CRAs if a consumer disputes information it reported to the CRAs. AEBFSB created a system that failed to report to the CRAs when a consumer disputed information. Depending on AEBFSB’s investigation of the dispute, AEBFSB either asked the CRAs to delete the information, or AEBFSB reported the information to the CRAs without indicating the dispute in violation of FCRA.

(4) Board and Management Oversight. The Bank’s Board of Directors (“Board”) and senior management exercised ineffective oversight and control over the compliance function, particularly the oversight of AEBFSB Service Providers.

(5) Compliance Program. The Bank’s CRMP is deficient, with problems in the implementation and compliance with policies and procedures. The Bank failed to implement an effective employee training program for applicable consumer protection laws and implementing rules and regulations, regulatory guidance and statements of policy (“Consumer Protection Laws”). In addition, the Bank has failed to adequately monitor consumer complaints and inquiries.

(6) Compliance Staffing. The position of Chief Compliance Officer has turned over frequently, which adversely affects the Bank’s compliance with Consumer Protection Laws. Staffing for compliance monitoring is inadequate.

(7) Oversight of Service Provider Agreements and Services. Most of the Bank’s consumer operations are performed or directed by affiliates and service providers. All violations identified in the Supervisory Letter are attributed to deficient management oversight of the Bank’s Service Providers.

(8) Consumer Harm. Approximately 20,000 consumers were adversely impacted by the Bank’s actions and at least $10,000,000 was collected by the Bank in violation of applicable Consumer Protection Laws.

STIPULATION

The Bank, by and through its duly elected and currently acting Board, has executed a Stipulation to the Issuance of a Consent Order, Order for Restitution, and Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty (“Stipulation”), dated September 27, 2012, that is accepted by the CFPB. With the Stipulation, the Bank has consented, without admitting or denying any findings of fact, violations of laws or regulations, to the issuance of the Consent Order, Order for Restitution, and Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty (collectively “Orders”) by the CFPB.

Having determined that the requirements for issuance of an order under section 1053(b) of the CFP Act, 12 U.S.C. § 5553(b) has been satisfied, the CFPB, therefore, accepts the Stipulation and issue the following orders:

II. CONSENT ORDER

If the information is contained in a multi-page print document, the disclosure appears on the first page; and

(b) As to information presented orally, spoken and disclosed in a volume, cadence and syntax sufficient for an ordinary consumer to hear and comprehend.

5. The Bank shall not make any representation or statement, or take any other action that interferes with, detracts from, contradicts, or otherwise obscures the disclosures required in paragraph 3.

6. The Bank shall maintain accurate and complete information on each consumer debt that the Bank collects or attempts to collect. Such information shall include, at a minimum:

(a) consumer agreements and any subsequent amendments and

(b) documentation evidencing the debt and each transaction or activity on the debt. The Bank shall make such information and/or documentation available upon request to a consumer inquiring about his/her debt.

For debts incurred prior to the Effective Date, the Bank may collect or attempt to collect such debts if the Bank has evidence to verify the debt, but must immediately cease such collection efforts if the consumer disputes the debt and the Bank is unable to provide the documentation in subparagraphs 6(a) and (b) above.

7. The Bank shall provide a copy of the Orders to any person to whom the Bank sells, transfers, or assigns any debt which would require the disclosures in paragraph 3 and/or be subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 and shall require in all contracts to sell, transfer, or assign such debt a provision that contains a clear and prominent notification to the buyer, transferee, or assignee that the Bank is expressly requiring that the disclosures in paragraph 3 be given by any person collecting such debt and requiring that the provisions of paragraph 6 apply to the debt.

8. For any Unreported Debt, the Bank shall not in the future report any activity to the CRAs.

This advisement of rights should be mailed or transmitted to consumers within three complete billing cycles or three months of its approval by the CFPB Regional Director and shall inform consumers that they have a right to dispute inaccurate information on their credit reports, and should they dispute the information to the Bank, the Bank will report the dispute to the CRAs, as required by law.
