

banners

The banners hanging on the light poles around the fountain are details from paintings in the permanent collection of the National Gallery of Art. Many of the works are on view in the West Building, just across Seventh Street.

Leonardo da Vinci
Ginevra de' Benci

Sandro Botticelli
Portrait of a Youth

Paul Cézanne
Boy in a Red Waistcoat

Hans Holbein
Edward VI as a Child

Rogier van der Weyden
Portrait of a Lady

Raphael
Bindo Altoviti

E. Vigée Le Brun
The Marquise de Pezay...

Jacques-Louis David
The Emperor Napoleon...

Giorgione and Titian
Portrait of a Venetian Gentleman

Amedeo Modigliani
Madame Kisling

Rembrandt van Rijn
Self-Portrait

Frédéric Bazille
Young Woman with Peonies

George Catlin
The White Cloud...

Gilbert Stuart
George Washington

Mary Cassatt
Child in a Straw Hat

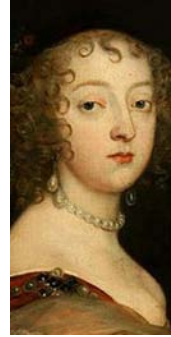

George Romney
Miss Juliana Willoughby

Gilbert Stuart
The Skater...

Gilbert Stuart
Catherine Brass Yates...

Sir Anthony van Dyck
Catherine Howard...

Auguste Renoir
Odalisque

Edouard Manet
The Railway

Unknown painter
Portrait of a Black Man

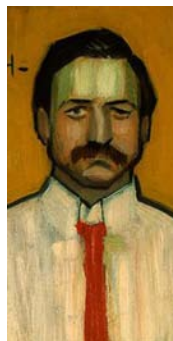

Johannes Vermeer
Girl with the Red Hat

Sir Peter Paul Rubens
Marchesa Brigida Spinola Doria

Henri Matisse
Lorette with Turban, Yellow Jacket

Pablo Picasso
Pedro Mañach

Rembrandt Peale
Rubens Peale with a Geranium

Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres
Madame Moitessier

Bartolomé Esteban Murillo
Two Women at a Window

Bartolomé Esteban Murillo
Two Women at a Window

Vincent van Gogh
Self-Portrait

Paul Gauguin
Self-Portrait