- n. Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (SGLI).
- o. Enlisted Record Brief (ERB) or service equivalent.

2-3. Pretrial Confinement

Pretrial confinement may be imposed when deemed necessary to ensure the presence of the accused for trial or upon a showing that there exists a danger that, unless pretrial confinement is imposed, the accused is likely to engage in serious misconduct, including but not limited to the infliction of serious bodily injury or death to others, gravely menacing the safety of command, or intimidating witnesses or otherwise unlawfully interfering with the administration of justice. Such confinement will be based on probable cause and limited to cases fully justifiable where no lesser degree of restraint will suffice. Normally, when pretrial restraint is deemed necessary, moral rather than physical restraint should be considered before any decision is made to use pretrial confinement.

2-4. Permanent Release from Confinement

a. Prisoners will be released from the USARCF-K upon execution of DD Form 2718 (Prisoners Release Order). The USARCF-K Commander is designated to release prisoners from the USARCF-K and will execute DD Form 2718. In addition, any commander in the prisoner's chain of command or a military judge after referral of charges to court-martial may order an individual released from pretrial confinement.

b. To secure the release of a prisoner in pretrial confinement, the unit commander will deliver a memorandum or letter addressed to the Commander, USARCF-K, APO 96271, at the time the prisoner is to be released, stating that pretrial confinement is no longer deemed necessary and briefly explaining the reason for the release. To avoid unreasonable delay in situations of extreme urgency, telephone coordination is authorized with the Staff Judge Advocate, the prisoner's unit, and USARCF-K.

c. To secure the release of a prisoner after approval by convening authority to remit or suspend sentence, the unit commander will immediately request the prisoner's release and promptly provide return transportation to the unit. Two copies of the approval action will be forwarded to the Commander, United States Army Correctional Activity-Korea, APO AP 96271, within 48 hours of publication of orders.

d. Upon the expiration of sentence to confinement, as determined by AR 633-30/AFR 125-30/SECNAVINST 1640.9C, the prisoner will be released to his unit. The Commander, USARCF-K, will ensure that the unit commander is notified at least 48 hours in advance of the prisoner's release date. No prisoner will be confined in the USARCF-K beyond the authorized date and time.

e. Upon approval of an administrative discharge in lieu of trial by court-martial, the cognizant commander will immediately notify the Commander, USARCF-K, and request the prisoner's release and provide return transportation.

2-5. Temporary Release from Confinement

a. When temporary release of a prisoner from the USARCF-K is required for investigation, trial, or other administrative action, the prisoner's unit commander will make the request by memorandum or letter. The request will be addressed to the Commander, United States Army Correctional Activity-Korea, APO AP 96271, and will cite the purpose of the release, the release date, the full names and social security numbers of the guards, and the estimated date and time of return to the USARCF-K. Normally, requests for temporary release should be submitted 24 hours prior to time of release.

b. The prisoner's unit commander is responsible for furnishing the necessary guards and transportation IAW chapter 4, below. The commander will ensure safe custody, control, and welfare of the prisoner, and will ensure the return of the prisoner to the USARCF-K. In case a prisoner is released for a trial that results in a not-guilty finding or a sentence that requires no additional confinement, appropriate action will be taken IAW subparagraph 2-4b or 2-4c, above (as applicable).

c. In the event a prisoner in pretrial status is admitted to 121st Evacuation Hospital, Commander, USARCF-K, will notify the unit commander. The unit commander will be responsible for furnishing, within 24 hours after notification, guards necessary to retain custody of the prisoner until such time as the prisoner is released from the hospital or other disposition is determined.

d. The Commander, USARCF-K, will provide technical advice and equipment (such as hand and leg irons) for all prisoner escorts.

Chapter 3 Clemency Boards

3-1. Purpose

To assist commanders in exercising their responsibility for the remission or suspension of sentences.

3-2. Policy

a. A clemency board may be established by the general court-martial convening authorities IAW AR 190-47, chapter 6. Other services may establish clemency boards IAW applicable service regulations.
