

Nominate Consumer/Peer Leaders for SAMHSA's 2012 Voice Awards

If you know of a consumer/peer leader who has been instrumental in educating the public about mental health and/or substance use disorders, please nominate him/her for a 2012 Voice Award. Eligible nominees should have made outstanding contributions to:

- Lead efforts to promote the social inclusion of people with behavioral health problems;
- Personally demonstrate that recovery is real and possible; and
- Make a positive impact on their community, workplace, or school.

For the purposes of the Voice Awards, the term “consumer/peer leader” is defined broadly as an individual who has received or is receiving services for a mental health and/or substance use disorder.

Nominations are open to anyone and are free. There is no limit to the number of nominations you can submit and self-nominations are welcome.

To make a nomination, please indicate the following information and try to be as specific as possible.
