TRANS-CONTINENTAL TRADING CORPORATION, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Boston Regional Office today announced that the Honorable Joseph L. Tauro of the U.S. District Court at Boston on January 21 permanently enjoined Trans-Continental Trading Corporation (TCTCO) and Trans-Continental Management Corporation (TCMCO), both of Waltham, Massachusetts; Zurich International Investments Corporation (Zurich) of Framingham, Massachusetts; Luigi M. DiFonzo, also known as L. M. DiFonzo, Louis DiFonzo, Lou DiFonzo, and Keith Anderson, of Wellesley, Massachusetts; Michael A. DiFonzo, Sr., also known as Michael Michaels, of Framingham, Massachusetts and Tiverton, Rhode Island and Michael Morse, of Los Angeles, California, from violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The defendants consented to the entry of the decrees.

The Commission's complaint alleged among other things that the defendants violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in a public distribution of the securities of TCTCO: namely, investment contracts consisting of an opportunity to participate in a common enterprise pursuant to which each investor was solicited to entrust a minimum of $5,000 to the management of the defendants, who in their sole discretion, employ the investors' capital to purchase and sell commodities' futures. The complaint alleged that misstatements and material omissions were made, concerning, among other things, defendants' expertise in the commodities field; TCTCO's affiliation with acknowledged experts in the fields of economics, international commodities, and currency-trading; and TCTCO's ability to engage in world wide commodities trading. (SEC v. Trans-Continental Trading Corp., et al., U.S.D.C. Mass., Civil Action No. 74-4299-T) (LR-6710)

COMPLAINT NAMES 3M, OTHERS

The Commission announced that it filed a complaint and consent judgments on January 30 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota against Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company (3M) and three of its officers and directors, Harry Heltzer, Irwin R. Hansen and Bert S. Cross.

The complaint alleged that the defendants violated the proxy rules and reporting provisions of the Exchange Act in the establishment and maintenance of a secret fund for using corporate assets to make unlawful political contributions. The consent judgments enjoin the defendants from using corporate funds for unlawful political contributions or other similar unlawful purposes; from filing periodic reports on proxy solicitations which are materially misleading with respect to such matters; and from making false or fictitious entries on the books and records of 3M, or establishing or maintaining any secret or unrecorded funds of monies other assets or making payments therefrom. The individual defendants are ordered to pay or arrange the payment to 3M, and 3M was ordered to transmit a statement to shareholders describing the facts and circumstances related to the allegations in the Commission's action. In addition, provision has been made for the appointment of a special investigative agent. (SEC v. Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Co., et al., Civil Action 3-75-29). (LR-6711)

The defendant is scheduled to be sentenced February 28, 1975. (U.S. v. Carroll W. Wells, Civil Action No. 1-68-11). (LR-6704)

COMPLAINT NAMES REPUBLIC ENERGY CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced today the filing of a civil injunctive complaint in Federal District Court at Dallas on January 28 against Republic Energy Corporation, Earth Energies, Inc., E. Carter Bills, II, David M. Dunn, Jr., also known as Dharman Dunn, a/k/a Wayne Carter, Richard T. Harris, a/k/a Murali Harris, Larry L. Ripaldi, Tom R. The complaint charges violations of the securities registration, antifraud and broker-dealer registration provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of the common stock of Republic and/or fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas leases located in Borden, Eastland, Cooke, Pecos, Schleicher and Winkler Counties, Texas. Federal District Judge Robert W. Porter, Dallas, has set February 18, 1975 as the date for hearing the Commission's motion for a preliminary injunction. (SEC v. Republic Energy Corp., et al., N.D. The Denver Regional Office announced that on January 13 Judge Robert V. Denney, U.S. District Court for the District of Nebraska, signed an order of judgment of default against Vern Hoffman, permanently enjoining him from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of fractional undivided interests in oil and gas rights offered by Apollo Oil Company, Inc. The remaining defendants, Apollo Enterprises, Inc., Paul B. Stella, G. E. The Commission announced that on January 28 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia permanently enjoined Interstate General, Inc. and Philip Weinkrantz of Dallas, Texas from violating the antifraud and reporting provisions of the securities laws. The injunction arose from a complaint filed by the Commission against Interstate and Weinkrantz and others which alleged that the role of a certain individual as a controlling factor in the acquisition of Savoy Industries, Inc. and the real purpose behind such acquisition was not disclosed to the public. Interstate and Weinkrantz were also enjoined from voting any of the shares of Savoy common stock acquired by them or their nominees in connection with such acquisition. Finally, as part of their consent, Interstate and Weinkrantz have agreed to file with the Commission amended reports fully disclosing the identity and background of all persons involved in the acquisition of the Savoy shares and the purpose behind the acquisition. Interstate and Weinkrantz consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint. (SEC v. Savoy Industries, Inc., et al., D.D.C. Civil Action No. 74-1711). The suspension was initiated at the request of the company and to allow time for investors and shareholders of the company to consider the announcement issued yesterday by Fidelity Mortgage Investors that it had filed a Chapter XI petition for bankruptcy.
