DECISIONS IN ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

SIDNEY HERTZBERG SANCTIONED

The Commission has suspended Sidney Hertzberg, of Woodmere, New York, from any association with any broker, dealer, investment company or investment adviser for one month, effective October 14. Hertzberg was also barred from the securities business in any supervisory capacity, with the proviso that he may apply after 2 years to have that bar lifted. If, within the next three years, Hertzberg is convicted of a securities related crime, enjoined in a securities related matter, or otherwise found to have violated any of the securities laws, the Commission may suspend him for an additional 11 months.

The sanctions were based on findings that Hertzberg violated antifraud provisions of the securities laws and aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping provisions. It was also found that Hertzberg was an officer and a director of a broker-dealer at the time when a trustee was appointed to liquidate the firm under the Securities Investor Protection Act.

Without admitting or denying the charges against him, Hertzberg consented to the indicated findings and sanctions. (Rel. 34-11703)

EQUITABLE EQUITIES, INC. REVOKED; OFFICERS BARRED

The Commission has revoked the registration of Equitable Equities, Inc., of New York City, as a broker-dealer and has barred Donald R. Quest and Henry Goldfarb, formerly its president and vice president, respectively, from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser or registered investment company. After two years, Quest and Goldfarb may apply to the Commission for permission to return to the securities business in non-supervisory, non-proprietary capacities. After four years, they may seek leave to hold supervisory or proprietary positions.

The sanctions were based on findings that registrant, aided and abetted by its officers, violated the financial responsibility provisions of the securities laws. The officers were also found to have aided and abetted violations of the recordkeeping provisions of the securities laws. The Commission also found that the U.S. Court in New York City had permanently enjoined the brokerage firm from violations of the Commission's net capital rule and had appointed a trustee for it under the Securities Investor Protection Act. The revocation order will not affect the trustee's responsibilities in liquidating registrant.

The respondents consented to the Commission's findings and to the sanctions in offers of settlement without admitting or denying the charges against them. (Rel. 34-11698)

FIRST CALIFORNIA COMPANY REVOKED

The Commission has revoked the registration of First California Company of San Francisco, California, as a broker-dealer. The revocation was based on findings that the firm during the period from about January 1971 to July 1973 violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in connection with the transactions in the securities of Westgate California Corporation and United States National Bank of San Diego.

Among other things, the Commission found that the firm knew that Westgate and the bank had entered into sham transactions in order to inflate their earnings. Yet, it sold Westgate's Class A common stock and the bank's subordinated capital notes without disclosing the fraudulent scheme to purchasers.

First California Company consented to the Commission's action without admitting or denying the charges against it. (Rel. 34-11707)

TRADING SUSPENSIONS

TRADING SUSPENDED IN W. T. GRANT COMPANY

The Commission has announced the temporary suspension of exchange and over-the-counter trading in the securities of W. T. Grant Company for the ten-day period beginning at midnight (EDT) on October 8 and continuing through midnight (EDT) on October 18, 1975.

Trading was originally suspended on the request of the company pending dissemination of news concerning the company's financial condition and efforts to renegotiate financing agreements. Grant has requested that the trading suspension be continued until such time as its financial condition can be adequately determined. (Rel. 34-11719)

COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

MIZE AND FARNHAM CORPORATION ENJOINED

On October 1 U.S. District Judge Allen B. Hannay of the Southern District of Texas issued a preliminary injunction enjoining D. Doyle Mize and Farnham Corporation from violations of the antifraud and tender offer provisions of the securities laws. Mize and Farnham consented to the entry of the preliminary injunction without admitting liability. (SEC v. Mize, et al., Civ. No. 75-H-1420, S.D. Tex.). (LR-7113)

CLARIFICATION OF CARDIODYNAMICS, INC.

On July 24, 1975, the SEC News Digest announced the filing of a complaint against Cardiodynamics, Inc., also known as Vida Medical Systems, and its acting president, John W. Gofman, alleging violations of Section 5(a) and 5(c) of the Securities Act in connection with a purported reliance by the defendants on the provisions of Rule 144. On August 20, 1975, the SEC News Digest announced the entry of an injunction against the defendants by their consent. The present announcement is made in order to clarify that Cardiodynamics, Inc., also known as Vida Medical Systems, is not related to Cardio-Dynamics Laboratories, Inc., a California corporation based in Beverly Hills, California.
