ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER ENTERED AGAINST BARRY PETERSON-ROSS

Barry H. Peterson-Ross has been ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. He has also been ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing an issuer to file annual and quarterly reports, and maintain books and records, that do not properly reflect its financial condition.

The order instituting and simultaneously settling these proceedings alleges that, during 1997 and 1998, Peterson-Ross caused Detour's annual and quarterly financial statements, as included in its filings with the Commission and in a private offering memorandum, to be materially false and misleading. First, throughout 1997 and 1998, Peterson-Ross allegedly prepared Detour's quarterly financial statements using simple fractions of numbers from existing financial statements, rather than actual results of Detour's operations for those quarters. Second, Peterson-Ross allegedly failed to properly record, in Detour's books and records and in the company's annual financial statements, an expense related to certain options the company issued to consultants in 1997. It is alleged that these options were issued at a price far below the stock's fair value at the time, and that the failure to properly account for this transaction materially understated the company's expenses.

Based on this alleged conduct, Peterson-Ross consented to be ordered to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation or any future violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 13(a) and 13(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-13, and 13b2-1 thereunder. (Rel. 33-7920; 34-43609; AAE Rel. 1346; File No. 3-10368)

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER ENTERED AGAINST DETOUR MAGAZINE, INC.

Detour Magazine, Inc., a microcap issuer, has been ordered to cease and desist from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and from filing annual and quarterly reports, and maintaining books and records, that do not properly reflect its financial condition. The order instituting and simultaneously settling these proceedings alleges that, during 1997 and 1998, Detour's annual and quarterly financial statements, as included in its filings with the Commission and in a private offering memorandum, were materially false and misleading. First, throughout 1997 and 1998, Detour's quarterly financial statements were allegedly prepared using simple fractions of numbers from existing financial statements, rather than actual results of Detour's operations for those quarters. Second, Detour's annual audited financial statements failed to properly record an expense related to certain options the company issued to consultants in 1997. It is alleged that these options were issued at a price far below the stock's fair value at the time, and that the failure to properly account for this transaction materially understated the company's expenses.

Based on this alleged conduct, Detour consented to be ordered to: (1) cease and desist from committing or causing any violation or any future violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 13(a) and 13(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-13, and 13b2-1 thereunder; (2) amend its filings with the Commission to properly reflect its financial condition and operating results; (3) as required by Section 13(b)(2) of the Exchange Act, make and keep books, records, and accounts which, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of its assets; and (4) devise and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that, among other things, transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. (Rel. 33-7921; 34-43610; AAE Rel. 1347; File No. 3-10369)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST PHILIP CHOY

On November 22, the Commission announced that on November 16 Judge U.W. Clemon of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama entered Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Philip L. Choy in an insider trading case involving the securities of Comptronix Corporation, formerly located in Guntersville, Alabama. The Commission's complaint, filed in August 1994, alleges that Choy unlawfully traded in Comptronix securities prior to an announcement on November 25, 1992 that top officers of Comptronix had perpetrated a financial fraud which caused the company to overstate sales and profits in prior and current years. The complaint alleges that Choy was tipped as to the fraud by Harvey Pegram who was tipped by Richard Adler, then a Comptronix director who learned of the fraud during confidential board meetings on November 15, 1992. The complaint alleges that Pegram placed a phone call to Choy at his business office, Magatronic Trading Ltd., located in Hong Kong on November 16, 1992. Approximately an hour and a half after Pegram's call, Choy telefaxed his brokerage firm and directed it to sell all of Magatronic's stock in Comptronix. As a result of trading prior to the public announcement on November 25, 1992, Magatronic avoided losses of $75,000.

The Final Judgment to which Choy consented, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, enjoins him from further violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and orders (i) Choy to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $45,000.

The complaint was initially filed in August 1994 against Choy and the other named defendants. The case went to trial in August 1995. After a seven day trial the jury was deadlocked and the Court declared a mistrial. The defendants subsequently renewed their motions for judgment as a matter of law and the Court granted the motions. In addition, the Court entered default judgment against Magatronic in the amount of $75,000. The Commission appealed the District Court judgments to the Eleventh Circuit, which reversed the judgments, and remanded the case to the District Court. Comptronix declared bankruptcy in August 1996 and was purchased by Sanmina Corporation on November 1, 1996. All of the other defendants previously settled with the Commission and consented, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, to the entry of final judgments of permanent injunction from future violations of the securities laws and payment of civil money penalties and disgorgement. For further information see Litigation Releases 14198 (August 18, 1994), 14034 (March 29, 1994), and 16477 (March 21, 2000) for additional information. [SEC v. Philip L. Choy, N.D. Ala., 94-C-2018-S] (LR-16808)
