ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION FILES CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION AGAINST TRANS-AMERICAN OSTRICH TRADERS, INC., LARRY EARP AND DAVID SILVER

The Commission today announced the filing on March 5 of a complaint in the United States District Court for the Central District of California against Trans-American Ostrich Traders, Inc., Larry R.

Earp, and David P. Silver. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the antifraud and broker registration provisions of the Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with the offer and sale to the public of unregistered securities in a series of 17 partnerships purportedly organized for the purpose of acquiring, raising, and breeding ostriches. Between November 1993 and December 1994, the defendants raised at least $7.45 million from approximately 350 investors in at least 40 states.

The Commission's complaint seeks permanent injunctive relief, disgorgement with prejudgment interest, and civil money penalties. The Commission also is seeking an order barring Earp and Silver from acting as officers or directors of any public company. [SEC v. Trans-American Ostrich Traders, Inc., Larry R. Earp, and David P. Silver, Civil Action No. 96-1559 RMT, MCx, C.D.Cal.] (LR-14835)

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ISSUED AGAINST HAROLD GLANTZ

The Commission announced that on February 23 Judge Charles S. Haight of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered an Order of Preliminary Injunction by Consent against Harold Glantz. The Order stems from a complaint filed by the Commission against Glantz and Peter H. Block on August 8, 1994, alleging a fictitious "Prime Bank" investment program through which Glantz and Block raised at least $2 million from investors, and seeking, among other things, injunctive relief, disgorgement and civil penalties.

The Court's Order preliminarily enjoined Glantz from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and left the issues of disgorgement and civil penalties for determination at a later date. Glantz is awaiting trial on criminal charges in the District of Massachusetts. [SEC v. Harold Glantz and Peter H. Block, 94 Civ. 5737, CSH] (LR-14833)

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST SAGE TECHNOLOGY, INC.

The Commission announced that on February 22 the Honorable Horace T. Ward, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, entered an order of preliminary injunction against Sage Technology, Inc. (Sage) of Smyrna, Georgia, Jamie Edelkind of Kennesaw, Georgia, and William R. Thiele of Atlanta, Georgia, enjoining them from further violations of the antifraud and broker registration provisions of the federal securities laws. The Order also requires the Defendants to account for proceeds of an offering of Sage debt securities made during the period from June 1, 1995 to the present. The Defendants consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint. The complaint also seeks permanent injunctions, disgorgement with pre-judgment interest and civil penalties. The complaint alleges that the defendants have been conducting an offering of $2 million in interest bearing notes issued by Sage. In connection with that offering, the defendants are alleged to have misrepresented Sage's assets, failed to disclose that Sage was already in default on interest payments due to previous purchasers of its notes, and misrepresented the educational accomplishments of Edelkind, who was represented, falsely, to have earned a Ph.D. [SEC v. Sage Technology, Inc., USDC, N.D. GA., Civil Action No. 1 96-CV-361-HTW] (LR-14834)
