ACTING CHAIRMAN UNGER SENDS LETTER TO CHAIRMAN MICHAEL OXLEY CONCERNING INVESTOR AND CAPITAL MARKETS FEE RELIEF ACT

On March 15, Acting Chairman Unger sent the following letter to Chairman Oxley in support of the proposed Investor and Capital Markets Fee Relief Act bill.

March 15, 2001

The Honorable Michael G. Oxley
Chairman
Committee on Financial Services
U.S. House of Representatives
2129 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Chairman Oxley:

I am pleased to write in enthusiastic support of the proposed "Investor and Capital Markets Fee Relief Act." This bill, as you described it today, will provide meaningful securities fee relief to investors, market participants, and public companies, while assuring full and stable long-term funding of the Commission. I commend you and Subcommittee Chairman Baker, Representatives Vito Fossella, Sue Kelly, Felix Grucci, Carolyn Maloney, and Joseph Crowley, as well as the other co-sponsors and your staff, for crafting such a considered approach to this technically complex and multi-faceted issue.

The pay parity provision is particularly important to the Commission's ability to attract and retain qualified staff. The proposed bill, together with commensurate authorization and appropriation, will help address this issue.

Again, I express my sincere thanks for your leadership on these issues. Please let me know if there is anything my staff or I can do to assist you as this process moves forward.

Sincerely,
Laura S. Unger
Acting Chairman

Ranking Minority Member

SEC RELEASES STATEMENT ON COMPLIANCE DATE FOR GRAMM-LEACH-BLILEY ACT REQUIREMENTS

Today the Commission released the following statement with regard to compliance requirements under provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act:

We understand that questions have arisen concerning the bank broker-dealer exceptions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. Accordingly, the Commission intends to engage in rulemaking within the next few weeks to clarify certain interpretative questions. We also intend to provide additional time from the current May 12, 2001 effective date for affected banks to come into full compliance with the requirements under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act. As part of this process the Commission will continue discussions with interested parties as these issues are further developed. (Press Rel. 2001-31)

Simultaneous with the institution of this proceeding, Gaiser submitted an Offer of Settlement in which, while neither admitting nor denying the Commission's findings, Gaiser consented to the entry of an Order barring him from association with any broker or dealer, with a right to reapply after one year. The Order was based on the entry of a permanent injunction in a civil action against Gaiser. The Commission's complaint alleged that Gaiser violated the registration and antifraud provisions by, among other things, omitting to disclose the actual commissions paid to him in connection with the offer and sale of the unregistered securities of three restaurant subsidiaries of Papa Holdings, Inc. (Rel. 34-44080; File No. 3-10442)

COMMISSION INSTITUTES ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING AGAINST DAVID NAUGHTON

The Order was based on the entry of a permanent injunction in a civil action against Naughton. The Commission's complaint alleged that Naughton violated the registration and antifraud provisions by, among other things, omitting to disclose the actual use of proceeds, including the commissions and overrides paid to him and others, from the sale of the unregistered securities of Papa Holdings, Inc. and two of its restaurant subsidiaries.
