ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST THE VENTANA CORPORATION, ET AL.

The Commission announced the filing of a complaint on September 21 in United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, as to The Ventana Corporation, Life America Corporation, International Mercantile Corporation (IMC), Frontier Insurance Company, Universal Life Holding Corporation, Sterling Financial Corporation, Ronald T. Benitez, Roger J. LeBlanc, Stewart J. Juneau and Neil R. Juneau. The Commission's complaint charges violations of the antifraud, beneficial ownership and periodic reporting provisions of the federal securities laws in connection with the 1991 acquisition of three related public companies by entities controlled by Ronald T. Benitez, and misleading periodic filings made subsequently by the acquired companies. These filings failed to disclose, among other things, that many of the assets of the acquired companies had been transferred to parties related to new management. This matter was simultaneously resolved through the entry of an Order, consented to by all defendants, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint: enjoining each of them from further violations of certain provisions of the federal securities laws; barring Roger J. LeBlanc from acting as an officer or director of any public company; and ordering Ronald T. Benitez, Stewart J. Juneau, Neil R. Juneau and Sterling Financial Corporation to pay monetary penalties for violating certain provisions of the federal securities laws.

In a related matter on September 21 the Commission instituted and simultaneously settled a public administrative proceeding pursuant to Section 21C of the Exchange Act as to attorney Arthur E. Fillmore, requiring that he cease and desist from committing or causing violations of the antifraud and beneficial ownership provisions of the Exchange Act (See Admin. Proc. File No. 3-8821). Also, on September 21, the Commission instituted and simultaneously settled a public administrative proceeding as to P. Andrew Baker, a senior officer of IMC and Frontier, requiring that he cease and desist from causing violations of the periodic reporting provisions of the federal securities laws (See Admin. Proc. File No. 3-8822). [SEC v. The Ventana Corporation, et al., Civil Action No. 95-0849-CV-W-1, W.D. Mo.] (LR-14646; AAE Rel. 714); (Rel. 34-36259 - Arthur E. Fillmore); (Rel. 34-36260, AAE Rel. 716 - P. Andrew Baker)

ADMINISTRATIVE AND CEASE AND DESIST PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST MARK SAVOCA

The Commission instituted public administrative and cease and desist proceedings against Mark Nicholas Savoca, a former Hanover Sterling & Co., Ltd. registered representative.

The Order Instituting Proceedings alleges that Savoca violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder and willfully aided and abetted and caused Hanover Sterling's violations of Exchange Act Rule 10b-6 by stating to certain customers that they were required to purchase All Pro Products, Inc. securities in the aftermarket as a condition to purchasing those securities in the All Pro initial public offering. The Order alleges that these customers purchased approximately $187,560 worth of All Pro securities in the aftermarket on November 9, 1993. The Order also alleges that, during the All Pro IPO, Savoca solicited one other customer to purchase All Pro securities in the aftermarket. The Order alleges that, as a result of Savoca's solicitation during the IPO, this customer purchased $75,020 worth of All Pro securities in the aftermarket on November 9, 1993.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations against the respondent are true, and, if so, what remedial action, if any, is appropriate; whether a cease and desist order should issue; and whether Savoca should be ordered to pay disgorgement and civil penalties. (Rel. 33-7219; 34-36261)

ADMINISTRATIVE AND CEASE AND DESIST PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AND SETTLED AGAINST ROBERT CATOGGIO, RONAN GARBER AND LOWELL SCHATZER

The Commission instituted administrative and cease and desist proceedings against Robert Catoggio and Ronan Garber, Hanover Sterling & Co., Ltd.'s former traders, and instituted administrative proceedings against Lowell Schatzer, Hanover's President. Catoggio, Garber and Schatzer have consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to the entry of an order by the Commission making findings and barring them from association with certain Commission regulated entities. Catoggio and Garber also consented to the issuance of cease and desist orders against them from violating certain securities law provisions and consented to pay civil penalties of $50,000 and $25,000, respectively. Civil penalties have not been imposed against Schatzer based upon his demonstrated inability to pay.

The Order finds that, on November 9, 1993, Catoggio and Garber manipulated the market for All Pro Products, Inc. units, in violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-6. The Order also finds that Garber and Catoggio willfully aided and abetted and caused Hanover's violations of Sections 11A(c), 15(c) and 17(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 11Aa3-1(c)(4), 15c1-2 and 17a-3.

The Order finds that Schatzer failed to supervise Catoggio and Garber, as well as a former Hanover registered representative who stated to certain customers that they were required to purchase All Pro units in the aftermarket as a condition of obtaining units in the initial public offering. (Rels. 33-7220; 34-36262)

JWP, INC. AND FORMER SENIOR OFFICERS CHARGED WITH FINANCIAL FRAUD AND FILING FALSE DOCUMENTS WITH THE COMMISSION

The Commission filed an injunctive action against EMCOR Group, Inc. (formerly known as JWP, Inc.) (JWP), and four of its former senior officers: Ernest W. Grendi (E. Grendi), former CFO; Joseph E. Grendi (J. Grendi), former regional CFO; John K. McQuade (McQuade), former senior vice president of finance; and Philip M. McGinn (McGinn), former controller. The Commission's complaint alleges that between January 1991 and August 1992, the defendants, knowingly or recklessly, participated in a fraudulent accounting scheme to overstate JWP's income by at least $100 million. Simultaneously with the complaint filing, a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief was entered against J. Grendi, McQuade and McGinn, whereby they each consented, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, to be permanently enjoined from future violations of the antifraud and books and records provisions of the securities laws. J. Grendi, McQuade and McGinn each also consented to disgorge his 1991 bonus, which was based on JWP's overstated income. McQuade and McGinn also consented to disgorge losses avoided upon their sale of JWP common stock, while in possession of material, nonpublic information that JWP was overstating income. Thus, including prejudgment interest, J. Grendi will disgorge $20,787.15, McQuade will disgorge $94,978.73, and McGinn will disgorge $144,066.73. J. Grendi and McQuade will further pay $17,391.00 and $75,493.50, respectively, representing civil money penalties. JWP also consented, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, to be enjoined from future violations of the antifraud and books and records provisions of the securities laws. The litigation is pending against E. Grendi. [SEC v. Ernest W. Grendi, et al., 95 Civ. 8685, DAB, SDNY] (LR-14647; AAE Rel. 715)

SELF-REGULATORY ORGANIZATIONS

APPROVAL OF PROPOSED RULE CHANGE

The Commission approved a proposed rule change filed by The Options Clearing Corporation (SR-OCC-95-05) that will allow OCC to issue, clear, and settle option transactions where the Italian lira or the Spanish peseta is either the trading currency or the underlying currency. (Rel. 34-36254; International Series Rel. 857)
