CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

JEREMIAH L. O'CONNOR SENTENCED FOR CRIMINAL CONTEMPT

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on February 9, Jeremiah L. O'Connor of Kankakee, Illinois, pursuant to a plea agreement whereby he pled guilty to a charge of criminal contempt, was sentenced by the Honorable William T. Hart of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, to four years probation conditioned on two months incarceration, and a good faith effort to make restitution. If O'Connor violates the terms and conditions of his probation, he would then be incarcerated for an additional two months. O'Connor also consented, as part of the plea agreement, to modification of a prior injunction entered against him. The modification requires that O'Connor furnish advance notice to the Chicago Regional Office prior to making any offers or sales of securities, except for normal brokerage transactions.

O'Connor was originally enjoined in 1978, in the case of SEC v. Pharmaco, Inc., et al., N.D. Ill., No. 78 C 1667, Decided May 30, 1978) (See Litigation Release No. 8433, June 13, 1978), from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws.

The pleadings in the criminal contempt proceeding alleged that between August 1977 and September 1979, O'Connor and others acting in concert with him and at his direction, sold approximately $335,000 of securities to 34 investors by use of false and misleading statements and omissions of material fact. Such alleged misleading statements and omissions concerned, among other things, the existence of an escrow account, the use of proceeds to purchase or construct a building for a discount grocery store, the payment of salaries to O'Connor and other officers of American, American's profitability, O'Connor's and another officer's personal investment in American, and the existence of the Pharmaco Injunction. (United States, ex rel. Securities and Exchange Commission v. Jeremiah L. O'Connor, Civil No. N.D. Ill. 82-CR-0329, Decided February 9, 1983). (LR-9902)

HOWARD L. DAVIDOWITZ SENTENCED

The New York Regional Office announced that on February 2 Howard L. Davidowitz of New York City was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 39 consecutive weekends and a fine of $10,000 to be followed by a term of five years' probation, including one year's community service. On December 22, 1982, Davidowitz pleaded guilty to a two-count Information charging him with violations of the securities and mail fraud statutes for trading on inside information while he was a principal of Ernst & Whinney, a public accounting firm.

While working in the New York Office of Ernst & Whinney, Davidowitz acquired confidential information entrusted to Ernst & Whinney by a client, Gray Drug Stores, Inc., concerning Gray's plans to merge with or take over Drug Fair, Inc., a publicly-held corporation based in Alexandria, Virginia. Davidowitz learned that the anticipated public offering price was approximately double Drug Fair Inc.'s then prevailing market price. He acquired 11,000 shares of Drug Fair, Inc. stock several days before the public announcement of a takeover. He then sold his stock at a net profit of $45,746.37.

In August 1981 Davidowitz was permanently enjoined by consent from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the Federal securities laws in a civil injunctive action brought by the Commission. He further agreed to disgorge the profits he made on his trading. (U.S. v. Howard Davidowitz, No. 82 Cr. 846 JES, U.S.D.C. S.D.N.Y.) (LR-9903)
