ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

S. PAUL PALMER CITED

In connection with administrative proceedings instituted on May 13 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Commission accepted an Offer of Settlement from S. Paul Palmer, a registered representative from Danbury, Connecticut, and issued its Findings and Order Imposing Remedial Sanctions. Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Palmer consented to the entry of findings and an Order barring him from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company, or municipal securities dealers and providing that after 18 months he may apply to reassociate.

In its Order the Commission found that Palmer wilfully violated certain registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of the common stock of Commodity Management System International, S.A. (CMSI), a now dissolved Panamanian corporation that was located in the Bahamas.

Specifically, the Commission found that from about July 1979 to January 1981, Palmer offered and sold securities without having a registration statement filed or in effect as to those securities. The Commission also found that Palmer induced public investors to purchase such securities by fraudulent acts including organizing and operating CMSI as a pooled trading account in violation of his employer's directives, concealing his involvement in CMSI from his employer and investors, and omitting to tell investors the risks involved. (Rel. 34-20333)
