COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

DENVER REGIONAL OFFICE AND OTHERS TO CO-HOST ANNUAL ROCKY MOUNTAIN STATE-FEDERAL-PROVINCIAL SECURITIES CONFERENCE

The Denver Regional Office, the Office of the Colorado Securities Commissioner, and Continuing Legal Education in Colorado, Inc. will co-host the Eighteenth Annual Rocky Mountain State-Federal-Provincial Securities Conference for city, county, state, federal and provincial regulatory and enforcement officials on October 17-18, 1985 at The Regency Inn, 3900 Elati Street, Denver, Colorado.

All local, state, federal and provincial regulatory and enforcement officials are invited to attend the "CLOSED" session on October 17th, as well as the "OPEN" session on October 18th.

Attorneys, accountants, broker-dealers, representatives of reporting companies, investment companies, investment advisers, and transfer agents, as well as members of the Financial Executive Institute, Colorado Association of Corporate Counsel, and other interested persons, are invited to attend the "OPEN" session on October 18th. Information and registration forms may be obtained by writing or calling the Denver Regional Office, Suite 700, 410 Seventeenth Street, Denver, Colorado 80202, (303) 844-2071.

CORRECTION TO 1984 LOST AND STOLEN SECURITIES PROGRAM STATISTICS

In 1984, reporting institutions reported as missing, lost or stolen 491,944 certificates worth $1,636,541,701. This compares to loss reports in 1983 of 472,649 certificates worth $1,708,389,602. Thus, while the number of certificates reported as lost, missing or stolen increased approximately 3.8% in 1984, the aggregate dollar value of those reports decreased by approximately 4.1%.

Previously, it had been reported that the aggregate dollar value of the certificates reported as lost, missing or stolen in 1984 had increased 18.5% over 1983.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD ACTION AGAINST TOWNSLEY ASSOCIATES AND PROPRIETOR AFFIRMED

The Commission affirmed sanctions imposed by the NASD on Townsley Associates, a Corning, New York brokerage firm, and Jesse M. Townsley, Jr., its former proprietor. The NASD censured the firm and Townsley, fined them $10,000, jointly and severally, and required Townsley to requalify as a registered principal within 90 days.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that in 1980 and 1981 the firm and Townsley were responsible for effecting transactions in the account of a customer that were contrary to her stated investment objectives. In affirming the sanctions imposed by the NASD, the Commission stated that "such conduct reflects a callous disregard of [the] fundamental obligation to deal fairly with ... customers." (Rel. 34-22410)

NASD SANCTIONS AGAINST TERRY DON WAMSGANZ REDUCED

The Commission reduced sanctions imposed by the NASD on Terry Don Wamsganz, a Chesterfield, Missouri securities salesman. The NASD censured Wamsganz, fined him $5,000, and suspended him from association with any NASD member for three years. The Commission affirmed the imposition of censure and the $5,000 fine, but reduced the suspension to six months.

The Commission found, as had the NASD, that in 1981 Wamsganz, acting outside the scope of his employment, served as a finder in connection with the sale of a business that involved the transfer of 60% of the company's stock. However, Wamsganz failed to give his employer prior written notice of his involvement in that transaction as required by NASD rules. In reducing the suspension imposed by the NASD, the Commission noted that Wamsganz's 15-year record in the securities business was otherwise unblemished, and that his misconduct in this instance only involved the failure to report his limited participation in a single transaction. (Rel. 34-22411)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

TRUSTEE APPOINTED FOR BROKER-DEALER

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on September 4 Judge Garnet Thomas Eisele entered an order in SEC v. Collins Securities Corporation, et al. The order found that the customers of Collins Securities Corporation (CSC) were in need of protection afforded by the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA) and appointed Harvey Leland Bell trustee for the liquidation of the business of the defendant under the provisions of SIPA.

Previously, on April 16, CSC, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, consented to a preliminary injunction and the appointment of a temporary receiver. The injunction preliminarily enjoined CSC from further violations of the Commission's net capital rule. (SEC v. Collins Securities Corporation, et al., USDC EDAR, W. Div., CA #LR-C-85-280). (LR-10875)
