COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SO-CALLED "PRIME" BANK AND SIMILAR FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Commission has issued an "Information for Investors" Bulletin that alerts investors and regulated entities to the recent escalation in the number of possibly fraudulent schemes involving the issuance, trading or use of so-called "prime" bank, prime European bank, "prime" world bank, and similar financial instruments. These instruments typically take the form of notes, debentures, letters of credit, and guarantees. Also typical in the offer of these instruments is the promise or guarantee of unrealistic rates of return. Common targets of these schemes include both institutional and individual investors, who may also be induced to participate in possible "Ponzi" schemes involving the pooling of investors funds to purchase "prime" bank financial instruments. These schemes do not involve the offer or sale of financial instruments issued by any financial institution having the word "prime" in its name; rather, that word (or a synonym, as in the phrase "top fifty world banks") is used to refer, generically, to financial institutions of purportedly high repute and financial soundness. The Commission requests that those with information regarding the offer or sale of "prime" bank or similar financial instruments provide that information to one of the Commission's offices.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST PATRICIA JOHNSON

The Commission has instituted public administrative proceedings pursuant to Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Patricia A. Johnson. The Order instituting proceedings alleges that from August 1987 to June 1988, Johnson, while a branch office manager for PaineWebber, Inc., a broker-dealer registered with the Commission, failed reasonably to supervise a registered representative who misappropriated funds from customers' accounts. Specifically, the Order alleges that Johnson allowed the issuance of checks made payable to third parties from the accounts of customers without first obtaining the requisite letters of authorizations from the customers and made no effort to later verify that letters of authorization were in fact received. The Order also alleges that Johnson failed to detect forged signatures on letters of authorization which were submitted by the registered representative, and failed to send confirmation letters to customers notifying them of check deliveries by the registered representative.

A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the respondent an opportunity to present any evidence in response thereto. (Rel. 34-33104)

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST PAUL KETTLER

The Commission has instituted public administrative proceedings against Paul C. Kettler (Kettler). The Order Instituting Proceedings (Order) alleges that Kettler, formerly a registered broker-dealer operating as Kettler & Company (Kettler & Co.), as well as the compliance officer of Kettler & Co., failed reasonably to supervise the branch manager of the Fort Thauderdale branch office of Kettler & Company with a view toward preventing the branch manager's violations of the federal securities laws. The Order further alleges that in 1988, Kettler & Co. underwrote an initial public offering in Windy City Capital Corporation on a best-efforts, all-or-none basis. The offering was completed on July 9, 1988. From July 19 through July 29, 1988, the first nine days of secondary market trading in Windy City common stock, the branch manager of Kettler & Co. engaged in a fraudulent scheme to manipulate the price of the stock and to charge secondary market customers excessive, undisclosed markups as high as 130 percent above the prevailing market price.

A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the staff's allegations and to afford the respondent an opportunity to present any evidence in response thereto. (Rel. 34-33105)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

FINAL JUDGMENTS ORDERED IN CHURCH BOND SCHEME

The Commission announced that Final Judgments were entered by consent against Benjamin C. Powell (Powell) on September 28, Auda Arlen Ashley (Ashley) on September 21, James A. Gates (Gates) on September 17, Willard E. May (May) and Claude Locklan Downs (Downs) on September 2, and Ronald E. Gilbert (Gilbert) on August 31. Gilbert and May were enjoined from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, and the registration provisions of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Downs, Gates, Ashley and Powell were enjoined from the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Disgorgement was ordered for all defendants, however, payment was waived for Gilbert and Ashley, and partially waived for May and Downs based on their demonstrated financial inability to pay.

The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants participated in the fraudulent offer and sell of in excess of $250 million in church and non-profit corporation bonds to investors nationwide. The complaint further alleged that the offering documents and/or oral sales presentations misrepresented or omitted certain material facts concerning, among other things, the financial condition of the issuers and the significance of a "guaranty" purportedly backing the offerings. [SEC v. AMI Securities, Inc., et al., USDC, ND TX, Amarillo Division, 2:92-CV-143] (LR-13851)

STOCK AND OPTION SERVICES INC. AND JOSHUA FRY PRELIMINARILY ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on October 15, 1993 the Honorable William M. Nickerson, U.S. District Court Judge for the District of Maryland, entered an Order preliminarily enjoining Stock and Option Services, Inc. (SOS) and Joshua Fry (Fry) from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and the books and records and custody provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The Judge also continued in place a freeze of assets against SOS, Fry and family members and affiliated entities. On September 29, 1993, a temporary restraining order had been entered against SOS and Fry enjoining them from future violations of the charged provisions, and freezing the assets of all of the defendants.

The Commission alleges Fry, acting individually and through SOS, has engaged in fraudulent schemes involving SOS clients and investors in a separate fund, through which he has misappropriated investor/client funds by misrepresenting that he would use the funds to purchase securities. The Commission also alleges that SOS, aided and abetted by Fry, has accepted custody of client funds without complying with the custody provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and failed to maintain required books and records, such as bank and financial statements. [SEC v. Stock and Options Services, Inc., Joshua Fry, Nancy Booth Fry, Joshua Fry, Jr., Whip Stables, and Good Till Cancelled Fund, USDC for the District of Maryland, Civil Action No. 93-2838] (LR-13852)

COMPLAINT AGAINST CHURCHILL SECURITIES, INC., CHURCHILL MORTGAGE INVESTMENT, CORP. AND GERALD HIRSCH

The Commission filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on November 1, 1993 against Churchill Securities, Inc. (Churchill Securities), a registered broker-dealer, Churchill Mortgage Investment Corp. (CMIC), a mortgage lending company, and Gerald P. Hirsch (Hirsch), the controlling person of both entities. The Commission's complaint alleges violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws.

In its complaint, the Commission alleges that from June 1987 through the present, the defendants have sold at least 1,030 unregistered securities in the form of CMIC mortgage participations to at least 520 investors, raising approximately $15,000,000. CMIC services the investments, including selecting mortgages for investors, investigating borrowers and properties, distributing interest payments, and guaranteeing payment of interest and principal.

The complaint also alleges that the defendants misrepresent material facts to investors, including the risk of the investment and that CMIC records investors' interests. Further, the defendants failed to disclose that CMIC assigns to investors interests in discharged mortgages or mortgages upon which CMIC has commenced legal proceedings.

The complaint seeks preliminary and permanent injunctions against future violations of the federal securities laws, the disgorgement of all ill-gotten gains, plus prejudgment interest and civil penalties. [SEC v. Churchill Securities, Inc., CMIC and Gerald P. Hirsch, USDC, SDNY, Civil Action No. 93-7486, CBM] (LR-13853)
