AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

The delegation is intended to conserve Commission resources, as well as expedite disposition of administrative proceedings.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 8, 2007.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Commission today is amending its rules governing the delegation of authority to the Chief Administrative Law Judge. The Commission’s Office of the General Counsel has delegated authority to grant motions of staff counsel to discontinue administrative proceedings as to a particular respondent who has died or cannot be found, or because of a mistake in the identity of a respondent named in the order for proceedings.¹ The Commission has determined to extend this delegation to the Chief Administrative Law Judge.² The Commission believes that this delegation will conserve Commission and staff resources, as well as expedite the disposition of staff motions prompted by these circumstances. Nevertheless, the staff may submit motions to the Commission for consideration, as it deems appropriate. The amendment also deletes reference to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, which has been repealed.

Administrative Law Matters

The Commission finds, in accordance with section 553(b)(A) of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A), that this amendment relates solely to agency organization, procedure or practice. Accordingly, notice and opportunity for public comment are unnecessary. Because notice and comment are not required for this final rule, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required under the Regulatory Flexibility Act.³ Because the rule relates to “agency organization, procedure or practice that does not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties,” it is not subject to the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act.⁴

Section 23(a)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Commission, in adopting rules under such Act, to consider the anticompetitive effects of any rules it adopts. The Commission does not believe this rule will have any impact on competition because it imposes no new burden on respondents in administrative proceedings, and is intended to expedite disposition of those proceedings. The rule does not contain any collection of information requirements as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, as amended.⁵ The rule will not impose any costs on the public.
