Scope and Content Note

The papers of Nathaniel Sisson (1845-1932) span the years 1838-1932, with the bulk of the material dating from 1862 to 1920. The collection includes correspondence, financial records, medals, printed matter, and writings and is arranged alphabetically by type of material or topic followed by miscellany and oversize.

The earliest correspondence, 1862-1865, contains letters between Sisson and his family describing his Civil War experiences and their domestic activities. The post-Civil War correspondence is composed chiefly of letters received by Sisson from his family in Ohio and Iowa. Subjects include the medical profession, teaching, and farming. Sisson's business ventures and private life are occasionally mentioned.

After his war service, Sisson moved to Maryville, Missouri, where he experimented with several professions such as bridge building, cabinet making, surveying, and teaching before settling on the real estate business. A subject file contains primarily printed matter documenting Sisson's involvement in these areas. The file also includes material relating to Sisson's participation in genealogical research, military reunions, national politics, and the Freemasons.

A writings file contains Sisson's reminiscences of his Civil War experiences. It also includes essays, poetry, and speeches by Sisson and others. A miscellany file comprises military and political badges, road and bridge surveys, and newspaper clippings.
