INSTRUCTIONS

Liability for Filing Return

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States, though not a citizen thereof, having a gross income for the calendar year 1933 of $5,000, or over, or a net income for the same period of (a) $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife, or (b) $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or (c) more than the personal exemption if the status of the taxpayer changes during the taxable year. If the combined net income of husband and wife, including that of dependent minor children, if any, is $2,500 or over, or if their combined gross income is $5,000 or over, either each must make a return, or the income of each must be included in a single joint return.

Items Exempt from Tax

- (a) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured.
- (b) Amounts received (other than by reason of the death of the insured) under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, not to exceed the premiums or consideration paid for such contract.
- (c) Gifts (not made as a consideration for services) and property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property is taxable and must be reported).
- (d) Interest upon (1) obligations of a State, Territory, or a political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; (2) Federal Farm Loan bonds and Home Owners' Loan Corporation bonds; and (3) all obligations of the United States and its possessions as to normal tax. Interest on Liberty Bonds owned in excess of $5,000 is subject to surtax if the net income is over $6,000.
- (e) Amounts received as accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness, plus damages received on account of such injuries or sickness.
- (f) Rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.
- (g) Compensation paid by a State or political subdivision thereof to its officers or employees for services rendered in connection with the exercise of an essential governmental function.
- (h) Compensation received for services rendered without the United States (except amounts paid by the United States or any agency thereof) by a citizen who is a nonresident for more than six months during the taxable year.

Income

Salaries.—Enter as Item 1 all salaries, wages, or other compensation received from outside sources by (a) yourself, (b) your husband or wife if a joint return is filed, and (c) each dependent minor child.

Interest.—Enter as Item 2 interest received on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except that interest received on bonds upon which a tax was paid at source by the debtor corporation should be entered as Item 3.

The tax of 2 per cent paid at source on such interest should be claimed as a credit in Item 15. Interest on bonds is considered income when due and payable.

Other income.—Enter as Item 4 all other taxable income, including dividends on stock of domestic corporations not subject to income tax under the Revenue Act of 1932 and dividends on stock of foreign corporations, income of an estate or trust, and your share (whether received or not) in the profits of a partnership, syndicate, pool, joint venture, etc.

Deductions

Taxes.—Enter as Item 6 all personal taxes and taxes on property paid during the year. Do not include Federal income taxes. No part of foreign income and profits taxes is allowable as a deduction if a credit is claimed in Item 16 of the return.

Contributions.—Enter as Item 7 any contributions or gifts made during the year to any corporation or fund organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational purposes. The amount claimed shall not exceed 15 per cent of the net income computed without the benefit of this deduction.

List names of organizations and amounts contributed to each in space above.

Other deductions.—Enter as Item 8 any other deductions authorized by law, including interest paid on personal indebtedness.

Personal Exemption and Credits

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim a personal exemption of $1,000. A person who, during the entire taxable year, was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $2,500. If husband and wife file separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based upon some moral or legal obligation.

In addition to the personal exemption, a credit of $400 may be claimed for each person (other than husband or wife) under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who received his or her chief support from the taxpayer. This credit can be claimed only by the person who furnishes the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

If the status of the taxpayer, in so far as it affects the personal exemption or credit for dependents, changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption and credit shall be apportioned in accordance with the number of months before and after such change. For the purpose of such apportionment a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month in which case it shall be considered as a month.

General Information

Affidavit.—The oath will be administered without charge by any collector, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent. If an internal revenue officer is not available, the return should be sworn to before a person authorized to administer oaths, except an attorney or agent employed to represent the taxpayer before the Department in connection with his tax.

Returns.—File the return with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which you reside on or before March 15, 1934.

Tax.—The tax may be paid at time of filing the return, or in four equal installments payable quarterly.
