FOREIGN MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS

Rule VII, Paragraph 4

[Procedure on Handling Petitions and Memorials]

Petitions or memorials shall be referred, without debate, to the appropriate committee according to subject matter on the same basis as bills and resolutions, if signed by the petitioner or memorialist. A question of receiving or reference may be raised and determined without debate. But no petition or memorial or other paper signed by citizens or subjects of a foreign power shall be received, unless the same be transmitted to the Senate by the President.

The reception of a paper, petition, or memorial from a subject or citizen of a foreign power is in contravention of paragraph 4, Rule VII, and cannot be received unless transmitted to the Senate by the President of the United States,¹ but a Senator, in the course of an address may use the information contained therein in supporting an argument made by him.²

GALLERIES

Rule XIX, Paragraphs 6 and 7

[Chair Authorized To Keep Order in Galleries]

6. Whenever confusion arises in the Chamber or the galleries, or demonstrations of approval or disapproval are indulged in by the occupants of the galleries, it shall be the duty of the Chair to enforce order on his own initiative and without any point of order being made by a Senator.

[Persons in Gallery May Not Be Introduced to Senate]

7. No Senator shall introduce to or bring to the attention of the Senate during its sessions any occupant in the galleries of the Senate. No motion to suspend this rule shall be in order, nor may the Presiding Officer entertain any request to suspend it by unanimous consent.

Rule XXI

[Closed Session—Galleries Cleared]

1. On a motion made and seconded to close the doors of the Senate, on the discussion of any business which may, in the opinion of a Senator, require secrecy, the Presiding Officer shall direct the galleries to be cleared; and during the discussion of such motion the doors shall remain closed.
