

the standards will receive a Federal seal.

States which establish inspection programs at least equal to the Federal program can be authorized to conduct the inspection program. Like meat and poultry programs, 50 percent of the cost of a State program will be the responsibility of the Federal Government.

Processing establishments, including vessels which process fish, will be subject to periodic inspection, and will have to be certified by the Department of Agriculture.

Procedures to identify harvest areas which may produce contaminated products will be established.

Imports will have to meet inspection standards which are at least as stringent as those affecting domestic fish products.

The Department of Commerce, in conjunction with the States, will establish a system for identifying and classifying fish and shellfish growing and harvesting areas for coastal areas and the Great Lakes.

A program for consumer education and fish safety research would also be established.

This program will be based upon the modern hazard analysis critical central point principles recommended by the National Academy of Sciences, and it would help ensure the wholesomeness of all fish products. I urge Senators to vote for the amendment.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, will the majority leader yield?

Mr. MITCHELL. Certainly.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, it is my understanding we will return to the pending amendment after this special event that we are going into now? It has a time certain on it of 2 hours?

Mr. MITCHELL. There is no time certain on the matter to be taken up. We will continue until completion of that matter.

Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. I understand this would then be the pending business.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator is correct.

QUORUM CALL

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll, and the following Senators entered the Chamber and answered to their names.

[Quorum No. 3]

Byrd	Hollings	Mitchell
Cochran	Leahy	Rudman
Gorton	Lott	Sanford
Hatch	Lugar	Stevens

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum is not present. The clerk will call the names of the absent Senators.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. President, I move to instruct the Sergeant at Arms to request the attendance of absent Senators, and I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is the demand of the majority leader sustained? Obviously, the demand is sustained.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on agreeing to the motion of the Senator from Maine. The yeas and nays have been ordered, and the clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. SIMPSON. I announce that the Senator from Wyoming [Mr. WALLOP] is necessarily absent.

I further announce that the Senator from South Dakota [Mr. PRESSLER] is absent due to a death in the family.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber who desire to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 97, nays 1, as follows:

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum is present.

SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS INVESTIGATION OF SENATOR DAVID F. DURENBERGER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The hour of 3:30 p.m. having arrived, under the order, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of Senate Resolution 311, which the clerk will read in its entirety.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 311) concerning the Select Committee on Ethics investigation of Senator David F. Durenberger.

S. Res. 311

Resolved, That the conduct of Senator Durenberger in connection with his arrangement with Piranha Press, his failure to report receipt of travel expenses in connection with his Piranha Press and Boston area appearances, his structuring of real estate transactions and receipt of Senate reimbursements in connection with his stays in his Minneapolis condominium, his pattern of prohibited communications respecting the condominium, his repeated acceptance of prohibited gifts of limousine service for personal purposes, and the conversion of a campaign contribution to his personal use, has been reprehensible and has brought the Senate into dishonor and disrepute;

That Senator Durenberger knowingly and willingly engaged in conduct which was in violation of statutes, rules, and Senate standards and acceptable norms of ethical conduct;

That Senator Durenberger's conduct was clearly and unequivocally unethical, and;

That, therefore, pursuant to article 1, section 5, clause 2 of the United States Constitution and Senate Resolution 338 of the 88th Congress, as amended, Senator David Durenberger be, and hereby is:

(1) denounced by the United States Senate;

(2) referred to the Republican Party Conference for attention; and

(3) directed to reimburse $29,050 plus interest to the Senate; and to pay to charities with which he has no affiliation $93,730, less State and Federal taxes previously paid on that amount, in excess honoraria improperly retained during 1985 and 1986, such payments to be made at the regular intervals over the balance of his United States Senate term.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the following staff members of the Senate Select Committee on Ethics, the Office of the Senate Legal Counsel, and staff and outside counsel for Senator DURENBERGER be granted the privileges of the floor during consideration of Senate Resolution 311: Wilson R. Abney, Victor M. Baird, Robert S. Bennett, David Apol, Houston Fuller, Annette Gillis, Jack Maskell, Tom Polgar, Jim Farrell, Beth Ryan, Abby Raphael, Fran Wetzel, Michael Davidson, Claire Sylvia, Bert McKasy, James Hamilton, Alice Negratti, and Steve Moore.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? The chair hears no objection. It is so ordered.

Mr. MITCHELL. Mr. President, this afternoon, in accordance with the provisions of article I, section 5, clause 2 of the Constitution, the Senate is fulfilling one of its most solemn responsibilities—the consideration of and judgment on the behavior of one of its own Members. This is not a pleasant task, but it is a necessary one. I ask each of my colleagues to remain in their seats and give each of the speakers their attention as the Senate considers this important resolution.
