¶22.23 PARENTS DAY

On motion of Mr. WYNN, by unanimous consent, the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service was discharged from further consideration of the following resolution (H. Res. 236):

Whereas the values of sacrificial love and integrity are fundamental in developing the moral character essential to maintaining a strong Nation;

Whereas parents by their example of sacrificial love and the transmission of moral and cultural values play a crucial and determinant role in the development of youth;

Whereas time has demonstrated that the traditional American family is the most stable and secure environment in which parents can successfully rear future generations;

Whereas the current breakdown of the traditional American family is a major factor contributing to the rise of crime, teen pregnancy, educational failure, substance abuse, and suicide among our Nation's youth; and

Whereas it is in the interest of society and government to adopt policies, that help families stay together by strengthening and sustaining fathers and mothers in fulfilling their parental roles: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That on Parents Day, July 28, 1994, all private citizens, organizations and governmental and legislative bodies at the local, State and Federal level are encouraged to recognize this day through proclamations, activities and educational efforts in the furtherance of recognizing, uplifting and supporting the role of parents in the rearing of their children.

When said resolution was considered and agreed to.
