When on motion of Mr. KILDEE, it was,

Resolved, That the House disagree to the amendment of the Senate and agree to the conference asked by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

Thereupon, the SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, by unanimous consent, announced the appointment of Messrs. FORD of Michigan, KILDEE, WILLIAMS, GOODLING, and GUNDERSON, as managers on the part of the House at said conference.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶24.7 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 103

Mr. STENHOLM, pursuant to the order of the House of March 11, 1994, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 331):

Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution the House shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation, all points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration are hereby waived, and the first reading of the joint resolution shall be dispensed with. After general debate, which shall be confined to the joint resolution and which shall not exceed nine hours, to be equally divided and controlled among Representative Brooks of Texas, Representative Fish of New York, and Representative Stenholm of Texas, or their designees, the joint resolution shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. No amendment to the joint resolution shall be in order in the House or the Committee of the Whole except for the following amendments, which shall be considered only in the following order:

- (a) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Kyl of Arizona;
- (b) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Barton of Texas;
- (c) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Brooks of Texas;
- (d) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by any Member, which shall be the text of any comparable joint resolution as passed by the Senate;
- (e) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Stenholm of Texas;

Each amendment may be offered only by the named proponent or a designee, shall be in order notwithstanding the adoption of a previous amendment in the nature of a substitute, shall be considered as read only if printed in the Congressional Record at least three legislative days prior to its consideration, shall be debatable for not to exceed one-hour to be equally divided and controlled by the proponent and a member opposed thereto, and shall not be subject to an amendment in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. If more than one amendment in the nature of a substitute is adopted, only the last to be adopted shall be considered as finally adopted and reported to the House. At the conclusion of the consideration of the joint resolution to the House with such amendment as may have been finally adopted. The previous question shall be considered to be ordered on the joint resolution and such amendment thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. If on any day the Committee rises and reports that it has come to no resolution on the joint resolution, the House shall, on the next legislative day immediately following House approval of the Journal, resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the joint resolution.

SEC. 3. If a comparable joint resolution has been passed by the Senate, it shall be in order at any time after competition of House consideration of H.J. Res. 103 for Representative Stenholm or his designee to move for immediate consideration in the House of one such Senate Joint Resolution. Such joint resolution shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by a proponent and an opponent. The previous question shall be considered as having been ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) a motion that the House strike all after the resolving clause and insert in lieu thereof the provisions of H.J. Res. 103, as passed by the House, if offered only by Representative Stenholm of Texas or a designee, which motion shall not be separately debatable and against which motion all points of order are waived; and (2) one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

SEC. 4. Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of this resolution, of the joint resolution and any comparable joint resolution passed by the Senate shall be a matter of highest privilege in the House and shall take precedence over any other motion, business, or order of the House, and the House shall proceed with such consideration to final passage, without the intervention of any other motion, order, or business, except a motion to adjourn, or as otherwise provided for in this resolution.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. STENHOLM, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MOAKLEY objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
