¶24.5 DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES REAUTHORIZATION

On motion of Mr. WAXMAN, by unanimous consent, the bill of the Senate (S. 1284) to amend the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act to expand or modify certain provisions relating to programs for certain individuals with developmental disabilities, Federal assistance for priority area activities for individuals with developmental disabilities, protection and advocacy of individual rights, university affiliated programs, and projects of national significance, and for other purposes; together with the amendments of the House thereto, was taken from the Speaker's table.

When on motion of Mr. WAXMAN it was,

Resolved, That the House insist upon its amendments and agree to the conference asked by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

Thereupon, the SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, by unanimous consent, announced the appointment of Messrs. DINGELL, WAXMAN, BROWN of Ohio, MOORHEAD, and BLILEY, as managers on the part of the House at said conference.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶24.6 SCHOOL-TO-WORK OPPORTUNITIES

On motion of Mr. KILDEE, by unanimous consent, the bill (H.R. 2884) to establish a national framework for the development of School-to-Work Opportunities systems in all States, and for other purposes; together with the amendment of the Senate thereto, was taken from the Speaker's table.

When on motion of Mr. KILDEE, it was,

Resolved, That the House disagree to the amendment of the Senate and agree to the conference asked by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

Thereupon, the SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, by unanimous consent, announced the appointment of Messrs. FORD of Michigan, KILDEE, WILLIAMS, GOODLING, and GUNDERSON, as managers on the part of the House at said conference.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

¶24.7 PROVIDING FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF H.J. RES. 103

Mr. STENHOLM, pursuant to the order of the House of March 11, 1994, called up the following resolution (H. Res. 331):

Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution the House shall resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation, all points of order against the joint resolution and against its consideration are hereby waived, and the first reading of the joint resolution shall be dispensed with. After general debate, which shall be confined to the joint resolution and which shall not exceed nine hours, to be equally divided and controlled among Representative Brooks of Texas, Representative Fish of New York, and Representative Stenholm of Texas, or their designees, the joint resolution shall be considered for amendment under the five-minute rule. No amendment to the joint resolution shall be in order in the House or the Committee of the Whole except for the following amendments, which shall be considered only in the following order:

- (a) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Kyl of Arizona;
- (b) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Barton of Texas;
- (c) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Brooks of Texas;
- (d) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by any Member, which shall be the text of any comparable joint resolution as passed by the Senate;
- (e) An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Representative Stenholm of Texas;

Each amendment may be offered only by the named proponent or a designee, shall be in order notwithstanding the adoption of a previous amendment in the nature of a substitute, shall be considered as read only if printed in the Congressional Record at least three legislative days prior to its consideration, shall be debatable for not to exceed one-hour to be equally divided and controlled by the proponent and a member opposed thereto, and shall not be subject to an amendment in the House or in the Committee of the Whole. If more than one amendment in the nature of a substitute is adopted, only the last to be adopted shall be considered as finally adopted and reported to the House. At the conclusion of the consideration of the joint resolution to the House with such amendment as may have been finally adopted. The previous question shall be considered to be ordered on the joint resolution and such amendment thereto to final passage without intervening motion except one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

SEC. 2. If on any day the Committee rises and reports that it has come to no resolution on the joint resolution, the House shall, on the next legislative day immediately following House approval of the Journal, resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union for the further consideration of the joint resolution.

SEC. 3. If a comparable joint resolution has been passed by the Senate, it shall be in order at any time after competition of House consideration of H.J. Res. 103 for Representative Stenholm or his designee to move for immediate consideration in the House of one such Senate Joint Resolution. Such joint resolution shall be debatable for no longer than one hour to be equally divided and controlled by a proponent and an opponent. The previous question shall be considered as having been ordered on the joint resolution to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) a motion that the House strike all after the resolving clause and insert in lieu thereof the provisions of H.J. Res. 103, as passed by the House, if offered only by Representative Stenholm of Texas or a designee, which motion shall not be separately debatable and against which motion all points of order are waived; and (2) one motion to recommit, with or without instructions.

SEC. 4. Consideration, in accordance with the provisions of this resolution, of the joint resolution and any comparable joint resolution passed by the Senate shall be a matter of highest privilege in the House and shall take precedence over any other motion, business, or order of the House, and the House shall proceed with such consideration to final passage, without the intervention of any other motion, order, or business, except a motion to adjourn, or as otherwise provided for in this resolution.

When said resolution was considered. After debate,

On motion of Mr. STENHOLM, the previous question was ordered on the resolution to its adoption or rejection.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said resolution?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MOAKLEY objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.

So the resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote whereby said resolution was agreed to was, by unanimous consent, laid on the table.

24.9 BALANCED BUDGET CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, pursuant to House Resolution 331, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MONTGOMERY, by unanimous consent, designated Mr. SKAGGS as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole; and after some time spent therein,

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. SKAGGS, Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had come to no resolution thereon.

24.10 SUBMISSION OF CONFERENCE REPORT—H.R. 3345

Mr. CLAY submitted a conference report (Rept. No. 103-435) on the bill (H.R. 3345) to amend title 5, United States Code, to eliminate certain restrictions on employee training; to provide temporary authority to agencies relating to voluntary separation incentive payments, and for other purposes; together with a statement thereon, for printing in the Record under the rule.

24.11 BALANCED BUDGET CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. WISE, pursuant to House Resolution 331, and by unanimous consent, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation.

Mr. SKAGGS, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, resumed the chair; and after some time spent therein,

24.12 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment in the nature of a substitute submitted by Mr. KYLE:

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after the date of its submission for ratification:

ARTICLE—

SECTION 1. Except as provided in this article, outlays of the United States Government for any fiscal year may not exceed its receipts for that fiscal year.

SECTION 2. Except as provided in this article, the outlays of the United States Government for a fiscal year may not exceed 19 percent of the Nation's gross national product for that fiscal year.

SECTION 3. The Congress may, by law, provide for suspension of the effect of sections 1 or 2 of this article for any fiscal year for which three-fifths of the whole number of each House shall provide, by a rollcall vote, for a specific excess of outlays over receipts or over 19 percent of the Nation's gross national product.

SECTION 4. Total receipts shall include all receipts of the United States except those derived from borrowing and total outlays shall include all outlays of the United States except those for the repayment of debt principal.

SECTION 5. The President shall have power, when any Bill, including any vote, resolution, or order, which contains any item of spending authority, is presented to him pursuant to section 7 of Article I of this Constitution, to separately approve, reduce, or disapprove any spending provision, or part of any spending provision, contained therein.

When the President exercises this power, he shall signify in writing such portions of the Bill he has approved and which portions he has reduced. These portions, to the extent not reduced, shall then become a law. The President shall return with his objections any disapproved or reduced portions of a Bill to the House in which the Bill originated. The Congress shall separately reconsider each such returned portion of the Bill in the manner prescribed for disapproved Bills in section 7 of Article I of this Constitution. Any portion of a Bill which shall not have been returned or approved by the President within 10 days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him shall become a law, unless the Congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not become a law.

SECTION 6. Items of spending authority are those portions of a Bill that appropriate money from the Treasury or that otherwise authorize or limit the withdrawal or obligation of money from the Treasury. Such items shall include, without being limited to, items of appropriations, spending authorizations, authority to borrow money on the credit of the United States or otherwise, dedications of revenues, entitlements, uses of assets, insurance, guarantees of borrowing, and any authority to incur obligations.

SECTION 7. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of this article shall apply to the third fiscal year beginning after its ratification and to subsequent fiscal years, but not to fiscal years beginning before October 1, 1999. Sections 5 and 6 of this article shall take effect upon ratification of this article.
