So the amendment was not agreed to. After some further time, The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. GIBBONS, assumed the Chair. When Mr. TORRICELLI, Chairman, reported that the Committee, having had under consideration said bill, had come to no resolution thereon.

§33.21 CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET FOR U.S., 1995

On motion of Mr. SABO, by unanimous consent, the concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 218) setting forth the congressional budget for the United States Government for fiscal years 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, and 1999; together with the amendment of the Senate thereto, was taken from the Speaker's table.

When on motion of Mr. SABO, it was, Resolved, That the House disagree to the amendment of the Senate and agree to the conference asked by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon.

Ordered, That the Clerk notify the Senate thereof.

§33.22 MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES—H. CON. RES. 218

Mr. KASICH moved that the managers on the part of the House at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on H. Con. Res. 218, be instructed to agree to the Senate amendment reflecting a $26 billion reduction in the deficit over five years by agreeing to reduce the total spending levels specified in section 2(2) and 2(3) of the House-passed resolution as follows:

- Fiscal year 1995—$4.4 billion in budget authority and $1.6 billion in outlays;
 - Fiscal year 1996—$4.9 billion in budget authority and $1.5 billion in outlays;
 - Fiscal year 1997—$5.8 billion in budget authority and $4 billion in outlays;
 - Fiscal year 1998—$9.9 billion in budget authority and $7 billion in outlays; and
 - Fiscal year 1999—$21.8 billion in budget authority and $9.9 billion in outlays.
- Provided further, That conferees be instructed to agree to that portion of section 50 of the Senate amendment which provides that "If the President's defense budget request is approved, since 1985 real defense spending will have been reduced by 45 percent by 1999; and President Clinton, during his State of the Union Address on January 25, 1994, promised no further cuts in defense spending" and therefore insist that no further cuts be made in defense by agreeing to the highest possible level of funding for defense (within the scope of the conference).

After debate, By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to instruct the managers on the part of the House.

The question being put, viva voce, Will the House agree to said motion? The SPEAKER pro tempore, Ms. SHEPHERD, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. KASICH objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present, The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
