Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to permit any person or court access to criminal history record information for any other purpose or for any other civil case other than for use in a stalking or domestic violence case.

(b) ENTRY.—The Attorney General shall amend existing regulations to permit Federal and State criminal justice agencies, assigned to input information into national crime information databases, to include arrests, warrants, and orders for the protection of parties from stalking or domestic violence, whether issued by a criminal, civil, or family court. Such amendment shall include a definition of criminal history information that covers warrants, arrests, and orders for the protection of parties from stalking or domestic violence. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to permit access to such information for any purpose which is different than the purposes described in subsection (a).

(c) PROCEDURES.—The regulations required by subsection (a) shall be proposed no later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, after appropriate consultation with the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the officials charged with managing the National Crime Information Center, and the National Crime Information Center Advisory Policy Board. Final regulations shall be issued no later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

If the State can show a substantial increase in the number of records entered, then it shall be eligible for the entire grant amount. However, the Director shall suspend funding for an approved application if an applicant fails to submit a 6 month performance report or if funds are expended for purposes other than those set forth under this title. Federal funds may be used to supplement, not supplant, State funds.
