S. RES. 206

Whereas all American Presidents affect history in their own way, but few have made more history or shaped the history of their times more than Richard Nixon;

Whereas millions of men and women across America and around the world mourn the death of the 37th President of the United States;

Whereas he will be remembered for his foreign policy accomplishments, and for his dedication to peace;

Whereas in his first inaugural address, President Nixon said "The greatest honor that history can bestow is the title peacemaker";

Whereas because of his efforts as President to improve relations with the then-Soviet Union, to bring China out of isolation, and to forge peace in the Middle East, Richard Nixon more than earned the title of peacemaker;

Whereas he traveled the world, speaking on behalf of democracy, freedom, and peace;

Whereas he proposed a landmark family assistance program, created the Environmental Protection Agency, expanded the Food Stamp Program, backed the innovative program called "revenue sharing", signed the Consumer Product Safety Act, and emphasized strengthening law enforcement;

Whereas more and more Americans have come to appreciate President Nixon and his accomplishments;

Whereas they admire him not because he was perfect, but because of his courage and perseverance, his intelligence and his vision, the fact that he loved his family and because he loved his country; and

Whereas whether it was facing an anti-American mob in Venezuela, or going toe-to-toe with Khrushchev in the famed "kitchen debate", Richard Nixon always stood up for America; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate directs that the eulogies offered concerning the life of the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, former President of the United States, former Vice President of the United States, former Representative and former Senator from the State of California be bound and printed as a Senate Document.

SEC. 2. The Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the former President.
