58.18 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment, as modified, submitted by Mr. SOLOMON:

At the end of title X (page 277, after line 2), add the following new section:

SEC. 1038. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS CONCERNING THE NORTH KOREAN NUCLEAR WEAPONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) between 1950 and 1953, the United States led a military coalition that successfully repelled an invasion of the Republic of Korea by the Communist regime in North Korea, at a cost of more than 54,000 American lives;

(2) the United States and the Republic of Korea ratified a Mutual Security Treaty in 1954 that commits the United States to helping the Republic of Korea defend itself against external aggression;

(3) approximately 37,000 United States military personnel are presently stationed in the Republic of Korea;

(4) the United States and the Republic of Korea have conducted joint military exercises, code named "Team Spirit", regularly since 1976;

(5) the Communist regime in North Korea has built up an armed force nearly twice the size of that in the Republic of Korea and has never renounced the active and ongoing use of force, terrorism, and subversion in its attempts to subdue and subjugate the Republic of Korea;

(6) although the North Korean regime signed the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons in 1985, it has never permitted the unfettered international inspection of its nuclear facilities that is required of all signatories of that Treaty;

(7) the Secretary of Defense has stated publicly that efforts by the North Korean regime to develop enough plutonium to permit the manufacture of 10 to 12 nuclear weapons per year, and to develop the ballistic missile capacity of delivering these and other weapons over a wide area, represent a grave threat to the security of the Korean peninsula and the entire world;

(8) the North Korean regime continues to resist efforts by the United States to reduce tensions on the Korean peninsula;

(9) efforts in recent years by the United States to reduce tensions on the Korean peninsula have included the withdrawal of all nuclear weapons from the territory of the Republic of Korea and a reduction in the number of United States military personnel stationed there, the postponement of the 1994 "Team Spirit" exercises, the establishment of direct diplomatic contacts with the North Korean regime, and the offer of expanded diplomatic and economic contacts with North Korea;

(10) weapons-grade plutonium can be extracted from the fuel rods in the type of nuclear facilities North Korea is known to possess;

(11) international inspectors must be permitted to examine all spent fuel rods removed from North Korea's principal nuclear reactor at Yongbyon and to carry out tests necessary to ensure compliance with the 1992 safeguards agreement; and

(12) the diplomatic impasse concerning the North Korean nuclear program has clearly reached a critical juncture, the unsatisfactory resolution of which would place the international nonproliferation regime in jeopardy and threaten the peace and security of the Korean peninsula, the Northeast Asia region, and, by extension, the rest of the world.

(b) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that—

(1) the North Korean regime should take an initial step toward cooperation with the international nonproliferation regime by permitting the unfettered international inspection of the removal and eventual disposal of all spent fuel rods from the Yongbyon nuclear complex, followed by a comprehensive inspection process as required by the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons;

(2) an unsatisfactory resolution of the inspection controversy at Yongbyon that allows for anything less than unfettered international inspection of facilities in that complex should prompt the Government of the United States to take such action as would indicate the severity with which it views this provocation against international norms; and

(3) such action should include, but not necessarily be limited to, the seeking of international sanctions against the North Korean regime and the rescheduling of the "Team Spirit" exercises for 1994.
