

produced from Naval Petroleum Reserves Numbered 1, 2, and 3 shall be made at the price prescribed by section 7430(b)(2)(A) of title 10, United States Code.

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. MICHEL moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Armed Services with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

At the end of title X (page 277, after line 2), insert the following new section:

SEC. .LIMITATION ON PLACING UNITED STATES FORCES UNDER OPERATIONAL CONTROL OF A FOREIGN NATIONAL ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

(a) LIMITATION.—Except as provided in subsections (b) and (c), funds appropriated or otherwise made available for the Department of Defense may not be obligated or expended for activities of any element of the Armed Forces that after the date of the enactment of this Act is placed under the operational control of a foreign national acting directly on behalf of the United Nations for the purpose of international peacekeeping, peacemaking, peace-enforcing, or similar activity that is authorized by the Security Council under chapter VI or VII of the United Nations Charter.

(b) EXCEPTION FOR PRESIDENTIAL CERTIFICATION.—(1) Subsection (a) shall not apply in the case of a proposed placement of United States Armed Forces under such operational control if the President, not less than 15 days before the date on which such operational control is to become effective (or as provided in paragraph (2)), meets the requirements of subsection (d).

(2) If the President certifies to Congress that an emergency exists that precludes the President from meeting the requirements of subsection (d) 15 days before placing United States Armed Forces under such operational control, the President may place such forces under such operational control and meet the requirements of subsection (d) in a timely manner, but in no event later than 48 hours after such operational control becomes effective.

(c) EXCEPTION FOR AUTHORIZATION BY LAW.—Subsection (a) shall not apply in the case of a proposed placement of United States Armed Forces under such operational control if the Congress specifically authorizes by law placing United States forces under such operational control.

(d) PRESIDENTIAL CERTIFICATIONS.—The requirements referred to in subsection (b)(1) are that the President submit to Congress the following:

(1) Certification by the President that—

(A) such an operational control arrangement is necessary to protect national security interests of the United States;

(B) the commander of any unit of the Armed Forces proposed for placement under the operational control of a foreign national acting directly on behalf of the United Nations will at all times retain the right—

(i) to report independently to superior United States military authorities; and

(ii) to decline to comply with orders judged by the commander to be illegal, militarily imprudent, or beyond the mandate of the mission to which the United States agreed with the United Nations, until such time as that commander receives direction from superior United States military authorities with respect to the orders that the commander has declined to comply with; and

(C) the United States will retain the authority to withdraw United States Armed Forces from the proposed operation at any time and to take any action it considers necessary to protect those forces if they are engaged.

(2) A report setting forth the following:

(A) A description of the national security interest that requires the placement of United States forces under the operational control of a foreign national acting directly on behalf of the United Nations.

(B) The mission of the United States forces involved.

(C) The expected size and composition of the United States forces involved.

(D) The incremental cost to the United States of participation in the United Nations operation by the United States forces which are proposed to be placed under the operational control of a foreign national.

(E) The precise command and control relationship between the United States forces involved and the United Nations command structure.

(F) The precise command and control relationship between the United States forces involved and the commander of the United States unified command for the region in which those United States forces are to operate.

(G) The extent to which the United States forces involved will rely on non-United States forces for security and self-defense and an assessment on the ability of those non-United States forces to provide adequate security to the United States forces involved.

(H) The timetable for complete withdrawal of the United States forces involved.

(e) CLASSIFICATION OF REPORT.—A report under subsection (c) shall be submitted in unclassified form and, if necessary, in classified form.

(f) EXCEPTION FOR SMALL FORCES.—This section does not apply in a case in which fewer than 100 members of the Armed Forces are participating in a particular United Nations operation or activity.

(g) EXCEPTION FOR ONGOING OPERATION.—This section does not apply in the case of activities of the Armed Forces in Macedonia pursuant to United Nations Security Council Resolutions 795, adopted December 11, 1992, and 842, adopted June 18, 1993, as part of the United Nations force designated as the United Nations Protection Force (UNPROFOR).

(h) INTERPRETATION.—Nothing in this section may be construed as authority for the President to use United States Armed Forces in any operation or as authority for the President to place elements of the Armed Forces under the operational control of a foreign national.

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. MAZZOLI, announced that the yeas had it.

Mr. MICHEL demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

It was decided in the { Yeas 185 negative } Nays 237
