I believe the terms of the agreement negotiated by College Broadcasters, Inc. and SoundExchange, as published in the Federal Register on April 1, 2010, represents the best interests of WSDP and educational radio stations throughout the United States. I'm happy with the settlement for two reasons:

1. The monetary amount was reasonable and most college or high school stations can live with the amounts charged for webcasting. This is especially important for smaller educational stations that need a reasonable and consistent charge so that they can maintain their small operations.
