

MAY -9 1933

© Cl. E. unpub 6547

Words & Music By

Bernard M. Laughlin

LOOKING THRU' THE RADIO

Handwritten musical score for the song "Looking Thru' the Radio". The score is written on ten staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes. The music is in a simple, melodic style with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are as follows:

EV'RY ONE IS TALKING TO - DAY - A -
 - BOUT A NEW IN - VEN - TION ON ITS WAY - SOMETHING THAT WILL SET THE WORLD A - FIRE - SOMETHING THAT WILL FILL OUR HEARTS DE - SIRG - ITS THE TRUTH FOR WE WILL BLESS THE DAY -
 TEL - E - VIS - ION COMES OUR WAY - IN A LIT - TLE
 WHILE OH GEE, EV'RY ONE OF US WILL BE, LOOKING THRU' THE RA - DI - O -
 JUST IM - A - GINE WHAT WE'LL SEE, OH WHAT FUN FOR YOU AND ME, LOOKING THRU' THE RA - DI -
 - O - HOW WON - DER FUL IT IS TO THINK THAT WE CAN SIT AT HOME, AND SEE EACH OF OUR FAV - O - RITES BE - FORE THE MIC - RA - PHONE, WITH THE LIGHTS TURNED
 WAY DOWN LOW, JUST LIKE GOING TO A SHOW LOOKING THRU' THE RA - DI -